Videotape is on sale

Graduating seniors can now preserve the memory of their graduation ceremony by purchasing a video of the event, complete with individual school and college ceremonies.

This is the first year that the individual ceremonies of Phi Beta Kappa, the College of Education, the School of Journalism, the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Music, the College of Business Administration, the School of Architecture and Allied Arts, and the College of Human Development and Performance will all have their entire ceremonies taped.

Each video is over an hour long and will include highlights of the school year, campus landmarks, excerpts from the all-university commencement ceremony and candid shots of the graduating class and audience. The videos are being produced by the University Division of Student Affairs Video Project.

The cost of one copy is $29.25, for two the price is $57.90, for three it is $85.85 and for four or more the price is $24.95 each. For more information, contact the Division of Student Affairs Video Project at 686-3216.
