

Nine Days' Wonder, Hamhawks play Taylor's

MUSIC

Thursday, July 13
Nine Days' Wonder will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
John Workman Trio will be at Jo

Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9 p.m. tonight.
 Friday, July 14
Bochinche will play at the WOW Hall tonight from 9:30 p.m. Admission is $6 at the door.

Henry and The Hamhawks will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
Matt Copper Duo will be at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9:30 tonight.
 Saturday, July 15
The Soulsations will play at the WOW Hall tonight from 9:30 p.m. Admission is $4 at the door.
Henry and The Hamhawks will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
Matt Copper Duo will be at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9:30

Barbara Dzuro will be at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9 p.m. tonight.

on display in the Oregon Room of the Knight Library through Sept. 15 and can be viewed on Mondays between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.; and Tuesdays through Fridays, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

VISUAL ARTS

Continuing Remains is an exhibit of photography by Greg McGregor at the University Museum of Art's Mezzanine Gallery C through Aug. 20. Hours are noon to 5 p.m. Wednesdays through Sundays.

Eugene Track and Field Heritage, an exhibit of Eugene track and field memorabilia, will continue at the Maude Kerns Art Center through Aug. 7. Center hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Suggested admission is $1.

Candy Store, an exhibit of contemporary paintings and sculptures by a group of nationally prominent Northern Californian artists, is at the University's Museum of Art. The exhibit runs through Aug. 13.

Photography Exhibit by Dana Miller at the Keystone Cafe through July 27. The cafe is open daily from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Ghost of the Air — Past and present Warbirds is a photo gallery display at the IMC Bruinier Gallery to July 31. Hours are Mon. to Thurs. 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Fridays 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Oxford Movement and the Graphic Arts is an exhibit which connects a significant part of English church history with the development of printing and book illustration. It is

People of the Northwest is the title of an exhibition of photographs by Susie Morrill and Michael Phillips in the Hult Center's Jacobs Gallery from July 19 to Aug. 23. Viewing hours are 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekdays, and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturdays. The gallery is also open evenings of Hult Center performances.

MISCELLANEOUS

Friday, July 14

The Sound of Music will be performed in Downtown Eugene's Summer-Theatre-On-The-Mall. Sponsored by the Downtown Eugene, Inc., and produced by Jim Roberts and Mainstage Theatre.

Old Time Dance at the Westmoreland Community Center from 7:30 tonight will feature music by Chico Schwall and friends. Beginners are asked to come at 7 p.m. for introduction. All ages welcome, no experience or partner needed. Admission is free, donations encouraged for the band. Sponsored by Mobility International, USA, and the Folklore Society. Please wear soft-soled shoes for dancing.

The Entertainment Calendar runs every Thursday during the summer. Deadline for submissions to the calendar is Wednesday at noon before the day of publication.

Calendar

tonight.
Chicago Blues Tribute will be on KLCC (89.7 FM) today at 1 p.m. The show will be Dr. John's Tribute to Professor Longhair with special guests Allen Toussaint.
 Sunday, July 16
African Kings will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
Mark Alan will be at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9 p.m. tonight.
 Monday, July 17
Blues Jam at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
Open Mike Night at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9 p.m. tonight.
 Tuesday, July 18
Shakubuku will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.
Paul Paydos Duo will be at Jo Federigo's Cafe and Bar from 9:30 p.m. tonight.
 Wednesday, July 19
Sue Miles Band will be at Taylor's Tavern tonight.

OPEN SATURDAY
 for your convenience

U.S. Bank
 Campus branch only

Attention EORP STUDENTS!

Come See Our New Student Package Accounts

Also providing a full range of banking services

- Check Cashing
- Visa/MC Advances
- Exchange on Foreign Currencies

OPEN:

Sat. July 15 10am-2pm
 Sat. July 22 10am-2pm
 Sat. July 29 10am-2pm

13th & Alder

Fun abounds in Disney's 'Shrunk'

By Kelvin Wee
 Emerald Entertainment Editor

Whoever said Walt Disney Pictures doesn't make fun summer flicks like they used to definitely hasn't seen Honey, I Shrunk The Kids.

Starring Rick Moranis, Honey, I Shrunk The Kids is Disney's latest and probably most successful summer fun flick in the last few years.

Unlike many recent Disney movies, Shrunk transports audiences back to the era when come-laughter with his egotistical humor.

However, the real fun begins after the four kids, Amy and Nick Styliniski and Russ and Ron Thompson, are accidentally shrunk by a fluke baseball hit. They get swept up, thrown out in the trash, manage to escape before the garbage truck arrives, find themselves in the Styliniski backyard — which has not been mowed for ages — and begin their adventure.

The long grass blades make the garden look like the Amazon forest, and the kids' encounters with larger-than-life ants, bees and scorpions make them look like they went through a time warp.

There are fun scenes, emotional scenes, love scenes and really corny scenes too. But in all, the entire shrunken adventure is well-produced and created. Even the insects, grass, water drops, mushrooms and LEGO toys look real!

In truth, the only feature lacking in the movie is Sensurround. Sensurround would have made the movie even more intense in many parts, but could possibly scare a few kids, or cause a few heart attacks.

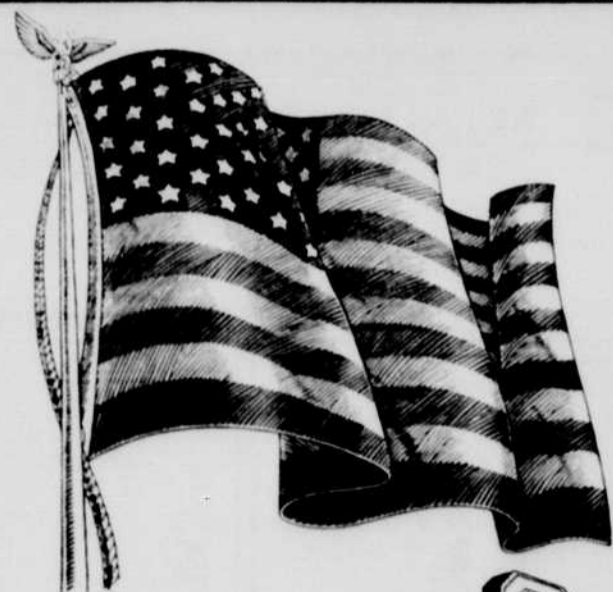

If the movie itself is not adequate to thrill viewers, there is a bonus. Maroon Cartoon's "Tummy Trouble" will not fail to bring peals of laughter from even the worst cynic. Included in the cartoon are Roger Rabbit, Veronica and the despicable Baby Herman.

Movie Review

dy and good, clean family fun was one. And fun it is.

Unfortunately, many who remember the good, old Disney movies may not consider watching this movie. Why? Possibly because past experiences have made many steer away from them, but mainly because the movie, sad but true, is being promoted as a kids' show. But is it?

Not really. The movie may be great for kids but it also will entice the older-than-average crowd. Moranis plays the absent-minded professor Wayne Styliniski, who amazed audiences with his innovative inventions. On the other hand, his neighbor, ex-high school football star Russell Thompson, never fails to disgust audiences into

WORLD VETERANS' CHAMPIONSHIPS

JULY 27-AUGUST 6

University of Oregon PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Run Date: Tuesday, July 25, 1989

Deadline: Tuesday, July 18, 1989 1 p.m.

The Oregon Daily Emerald — Call Us! 686-3712