The choice is yours. Eugene offers the music lover a vast number of options when it comes to where she or he can go to purchase that LP, CD or cassette.

Located closest to the University is Face The Music, 886 E. 13th Ave. Face The Music stocks thousands of LPs, CDs, cassettes, singles and more.

It is open from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on weekdays and on Saturdays until 5:30 p.m. On Sundays, it opens from noon to 4:30 p.m.

A little further away is House of Records, 258 E. 13th Ave. This store specializes in all types of music, from jazz to punk and alternative musics, from country to blues to classical.

While most people think of House of Records as a resale music store, the idea is not true, said Charlie Simpson, an employee.

"Actually, that's not true," he said. "We're about half new and about half used."

House of Records is open Mondays to Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Sundays from noon to 6 p.m.

In the Eugene Downtown Mall is the Record Garden, 957 Willamette St. The Record Garden specializes in music from the 1920s to the 1980s, according to an advertisement the store has placed, and stocks LPs, CDs, cassettes and also
