Greedy intrigue to murderous infidelity in the double bill
GIANNI SCHICCHI Giacomo Puccini November 3rd & 5th
GIANNI SCHICCHI, a notorious swindler, outwits the greedy relatives of a rich man who has died.

& PAGLIACCI Ruggiero Leoncavallo November 3rd & 5th
PAGLIACCI depicts the misery of the clown forced to laugh even as his heart is breaking. Brilliant staging in the "play within a play" sequence blurs the line between reality and make-believe with tragic results.

The world's most famous fairy tale is
CINDERELLA Gioachino Rossini December 30th & 31st
Prince Charming and a wronged stepsister battle greed and jealousy in this rags to riches story that has delighted generations. Ring in the New Year with romance!

What goes on behind closed doors is everybody's business in
RIGOLETTO Giuseppe Verdi April 27th & 29th
RIGOLETTO, the jester, recoils in horror at the curse that ultimately leads him to kill his daughter. It is palace intrigue and some of the most beautiful music in Italian opera as the gentry undermines itself.
