The Hult Center is Lane County's center for the performing arts. It is located right in the heart of Eugene and offers shows that will command standing ovations.

gliacci and Gianni Schicchi Nov. 3 and 5. On Dec. 30 and 31, the opera will perform Cinderella. All opera performances mentioned will be in the Silva Concert Hall.

Eugene Symphony Orchestra will offer a Sept. 30 performance entitled Battle of the Batons as part of its Pops Series. The symphony will perform its Classical Series Oct. 19 and Nov. 11. On Dec. 2 and 3, it will perform Superpops II. All orchestra performances will be in the Silva Concert Hall.

Classical music lovers will be delighted by the Oregon Mozart Players performances Oct. 14 and Nov. 11. Other performances will be announced later.

The Hult Center provides a different twist in culture, also. The center has not forgotten plays and poetry readings.

On Sept. 30, the Lane Literary Guild will host a reading in the Soreng Theater. On Oct. 1, the Western Oregon Institute for Arts in Education will perform Charlotte's Web in the Silva Concert Hall.

On Dec. 8 to 10 and 14 to 16, Mainstage Theater will perform Chicago in the Soreng Theater.

But if all that sounds too uptight and stuffy for you, don't worry. The Hult also houses many other types of performances, including concerts.

On Sept. 23, Tony Bennett will perform in the Silva Concert Hall. Christian rock band Petra also will be in the same hall Sept. 26. The Nylons will take the Silva stage Nov. 17.

This is not a complete list of the many concerts that will be in the Hult Center next year. Lists are updated regularly and new bookings are made all the time. For an updated list, check the Encore! calendar every Friday.
