Ducks trample Hawkeyes in Iowa, 44-6 final score

By Ashley Conklin

Imagine the shock. You're sitting in Kinnick Stadium in Iowa City, Iowa on Sept. 16 celebrating the 100th Anniversary of Iowa football. Suddenly the celebration turns sour as your beloved Hawkeyes lose 44-6 to Oregon, an upstart Pacific-10 Conference team.

While a 38-point trouncing was probably beyond anyone's imagination, that's just what the Ducks did to improve to 2-0 on the season.

One look at the statistics after the game, though, was enough evidence to document Oregon's domination.

Quarterback Bill Musgrave looked sharp as he continues to put last season's injury behind him, completing 20 of 27 throws for 263 yards and three touchdowns, two to tight end Koyla Tefft. Terry Obee grabbed five passes for 126 yards and the staunch Duck defense held Iowa 26 net yards rushing on 28 carries.

"We felt this would be a very close game and I'm totally surprised by the score," Oregon head coach Rich Brooks said in the Sept. 17 edition of the Register-Guard. "I don't know just what to make of it. But I do know we had a big advantage in quickness, and other than our turnovers we played a very good game. We're a good team and we played very, very well."

The Duck defense set the tone early in the game stuffing the Hawkeye running game and forcing Iowa to punt after only three downs. From there the game was all Oregon.

Musgrave took the Ducks 54 yards in only six plays, connecting on a 22-yard pass with Tony Hargain to give Oregon a 7-0 lead.

The Ducks continued to roll in the second period, tacking on another 17 points to lead 24-0 at halftime.

First it was fullback Latin Berry going over from the one-yard line. Then, following a 17-yard punt by Iowa, Oregon drove 29 yards and hit pay dirt on a Derek Loville dive from the one. After another horrendous punt by the Hawkeyes, Gregg McCallum booted a 25-yard field goal for the 24-point lead.

The Ducks kept the offense rolling thanks to outstanding defensive play in the second half. Two touchdown passes from Musgrave to Tefft in the third quarter left little doubt as to the final outcome.

Besides a menacing run defense, Oregon victimized Hawkeye quarterback Tom Poholsky in the air. Free safety Derek Horton picked off two passes and also recovered a fumble. Poholsky was literally booted off the field, completing only eight of 19 passes for 70 yards. Needless to say, Duck defensive coordinator Denny Schuler was pleased.

"Never in my wildest did I think this would happen," Schuler said in the Register-Guard. "Speed and quickness definitely won over size and strength."

The win didn't come without cost, though. Berry and starting center Scot Boatright both went down with knee injuries while reserve offensive guard Rick Hunt suffered an ankle injury.

Berry could be back in time for the Oct. 14 contest with Washington. Boatright is out indefinitely, possibly for the rest of the season. Hunt missed the Stanford game Saturday, but could play this Saturday against Arizona.
