Police Beat

The following is a list of campus area crimes taken from Office of Public Safety and Eugene Police Department reports between Sept.21 and Oct. 2:

· A harassment report was filed on Sept. 21, by EPD after a male suspect spit on a table containing pamphlets and brochures for the Gay and Lesbian Association.

The informational table was set up on 13th Avenue and Kincaid Street, and GALA members were distributing the brochures. The victim of the harassment did not wish to prosecute but a formal report was taken about the incident.

 Unknown suspects damaged a 1971 Volkswagon Karmen

Ghia parked on 13th Avenue and Columbia Street on Sept. 22. There was damage to the driver's side door and chrome strips had been removed from the side of the car. The front and rear bumpers had also been dented.

 A wallet was taken from a backpack from the side of the Bean area basketball courts on Sept. 25. The wallet contained credit cards and stamps.

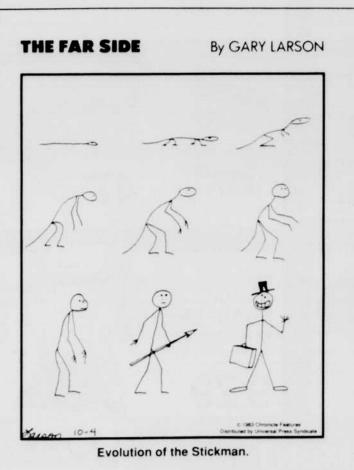

· A pink couch was reported stolen from Riley Hall Dormitory on Sept. 26. The couch was valued at $377

 A wooden lamp valued at $64 was reported stolen from Dunn Hall Sept. 26.

• In addition, OPS reports two bikes stolen, none recovered.

breaking the sound barrier few of this century's composers have achieved the sweeping popularity or influenced the musical sound of their times as much as philip glass · his originality, driving beat, and sense of drama have permeated not only serious music but rock and pop as well . in the familiar setting of the soreng theatre, glass will share an intimate side of himself that few of his legion of cult followers have come to know · experience musical history in the making
