

Campus-area disturbance results in arrest of man at record store

By Chris Bouneff

An altercation Tuesday afternoon at a campus music store prompted employees to detain a suspect until police officers from the Eugene Police Department could arrive on the scene.

Police arrested the suspect after Bob Lee, owner of Face the Music Records and Tapes at 886 E. 13th Ave., phoned in a harassment complaint at about 4:30 p.m.

Bill Harkleroad, a store employee recognized the suspect, identified as a black man between 20 and 21 years of age, as the same person he had detained 10 months before for shoplifting.

Both Harkleroad and Lee instructed the man to leave the store when he entered the store this afternoon. The suspect exchanged words with Lee and appeared to be leaving when he turned around and challenged Lee to fight, Lee said.

Lee said he came out from behind the counter and again asked the man to leave when the man took a swing at him.

With help from James Graue, a store employee, and Gene Evans, manager of the neighboring Shutterbug camera store, Lee struggled to the ground with the man while trying to restrain him. The suspect bit Graue on the left forearm during the struggle.

The three men held the suspect on the ground while Lee tried to explain to the man that he was being held until EPD officers could arrive. Police arrived at 4:37 p.m.

one else, nothing would have happened," Lee said.

Lee said the suspect initiated the confrontation, and that the three men did not strike the suspect but only held him down until the police arrived.

The suspect, when being questioned by police, said Lee initiated the fight by using racial slurs and pushing the suspect. He denied any knowledge of the shoplifting incident Lee accused the man of being involved in earlier this year.

Harkleroad said he caught the suspect in January attempting to steal a compact disc from the store. The suspect bolted from the store while the police were being called in, Harkleroad said.

They're Hot, They're Wild, They're On Sale.

If you plan on writing, presenting, publishing, drawing or designing, MacWrite®II and MacDraw®II software from Claris is the hottest and wildest combination available for your Mac.

MacWrite II is the hottest word processor around with footnotes or endnotes, a lightning-fast 100,000-word spelling checker, a 220,000-synonym thesaurus, multiple columns, headers and footers.

It also has word counting so you don't go one word over on that 1,000-word paper that's due first thing in the morning. And for those foreign language studies, optional international spelling dictionaries make your assignments a little less foreign.

Now let's talk wild. MacDraw II is outrageous. You can use it with virtually any course you're taking. Make overhead slides for a class presentation, or create structural drawings or architectural designs for those engineering or interior design classes—even newsletters and flyers for student-body sponsored events.

It's easy but precise. Zoom in to 3200%, rotate objects in .1° increments, measure down to millimeters, even "do dimensioning."

Put hot and wild together and things get really exciting. You can insert your MacDraw II drawings into MacWrite II. And even reduce, enlarge and crop them once they're there.

Your campus has worked out a special deal for you. It won't last forever. Get hot. Get wild. Get MacWrite II and MacDraw II now. They're on sale.
