

Hold war

Oregon's Dan Vidlak, wrestling for Team U.S.A., defeated Soviet wrestler Syren Khaltsanov in the 105½-pound division on Dec. 30 in McArthur Court. The Soviet team took the match 22-17.

Photo by Sean Poston

Duck matmen place third

Three Oregon wrestlers were runners-up in their weight classes to lead the Duck team to a third-place finish in Saturday's Portland State University Wrestling Invitational.

Dan Vidlak dropped a 6-4 decision to Portland State's Broderick Lee in the 118-pound division final, and Oklahoma State's Randy Courture decisively won Oregon's Joe Rissone 10-1 for the 190-pound title.

Minnesota's Marty Morgan pinned Oregon's Curt Strahm at 3:35 in the 177-pound division.

Rob Stone and Cam Strahm took third-place finishes in the 126-pound and heavyweight divisions, respectively, for the Ducks. George Johnson and Eric Messner lost in the consolation finals to take fourth-place finishes in the 150- and 167-pound classes, respectively.

Oklahoma State, led by four individual championships, took the team title, followed by Minnesota, Oregon, Portland State and Oregon State to round out the top five.

David Zuniga of Minnesota, who took the championship at the 134-pound class, was named the tournament's outstanding wrestler.

WE'RE SERVING UP THE SPORTING ITEMS YOU WANT AT PRICES YOU'LL

Love

ALL RACQUETS 20% OFF

TENNIS BALLS
WILSON AND PENN
OUR EVERYDAY
LOW PRICE 2.89

20%
Off Sale

ALL SPEEDO PRODUCTS

- PRO PLUS GOGGLE
- SWIM CAPS
- EAR PLUGS
- REPLACEMENT STRAPS

MASTER LOCK
TOUGH STRIPE BRANDS AND 1500

And

CAT-EYE BICYCLE TAIL LAMP

UO Bookstore

MAIN FLOOR
SPORTING
GOODS DEPT.