Lucas led the Ducks with 13 rebounds. It was the 11th time in 15 games that Lucas has led or tied for the team lead in rebounding and the fourth time he has been in double figures in rebounds.

"Coach looked at me and said 'Lucas, let's get going on the boards,'" Lucas said.

The 6-foot-7 Lucas was sixth in the Pac-10 in rebounding coming into the game, but had managed only 10 rebounds over the team's last three games.

"I've had a couple of down games," Lucas said. "I had to break out of that little slump and get some boards."

All five Oregon starters scored in double figures for the Ducks, led by Brandon's 19 points. Reynolds had 18 and Mixon scored 17, followed by Lucas and Fife with 14 and 11 respectively.

Washington State coach Kelvin Sampson said the loss to Oregon is typical of the year the Cougars have been having.

"This game is indicative of what's been going on all year," Sampson said. "Our kids played their hearts out, then we get to the point that we just don't have enough guys who can score."
