Offer Good Thru Jan. 29 - Feb. 3, 1993

A stunning second book of poetry by the author of Love Medicine, The Beet Queen, and Tracks.

"Baptism of Desire," in Roman Catholic tradition, is the grace that comes more from effort than from accomplishment, and the diverse assortment of saints and sinners, midwestern women, and mythological figures who appear in the pages of Louise Erdrich's mesmerizing new collection are united in their fierce determination to impose an acceptable reality on the chaos they encounter.

Everywhere evident is Erdrich's unique capacity for finding the perfect word, the fresh yet absolutely right metaphor that make her work both profound and accessible.

Baptism of Desire will be greeted with celebration by the many readers who have waited impatiently for eight years since the publication of Louise Erdrich's last book of poetry and it will engage a whole new audience already captivated by her bestselling and award-winning novels, Love Medicine, The Beet Queen, and Tracks.
