Darryl Kau of A La Carte serenades his boss, Judith Proveaux. You can choose one of several singing telegrams for Valentine's Day

Got a song in your heart?

Let Elvis sing his love for you

If you would like to give someone an original Valentine's Day gift, consider sending a singing telegram.

There are at least two agencies in Eugene that specialize in singing telegrams: A La Carte, which can be contacted at 345-8026 and Entertainment To Go, formerly Entertainment Hotline, at 342-1589.

Both agencies have male and female singers who perform either traditional tunes, classic love songs, or songs songs. "He really acts, walks and talks like (Elvis) when he was young," said Judith Proveaux, owner of A La Carte. The messengers at Entertainment To Go will deliver a telegram dressed in any costume that the sender chooses. Their prices range from $39.95 and $89.95.

Entertainment To Go is also offering a Valentine's Day special. For $49.95, a singer will perform either a personalized or traditional song along with a card and a rose.

that have been personalized for an individual.

They also deliver roses, flowers or candy. A La Carte will have heart-shaped balloons for Valentine's Day.

A La Carte has an Elvis Presley impersonator, who sings two of Presley's love songs. She's really gross. She delivers a cake with fake turds on top," Proveaux said. She also sings a sarcastic version of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

The prices at A La Carte range from $29.95 to $59.95, "depending on how simple or Both agencies emphasized that anyone wanting to send a singing telegram should call as soon as possible, but the services expected to be taking orders as late as February 13. Sarah White, manager of Entertainment To Go, said she only need one day's notice.
