DEPRESSION

blues hit you? Is the cold such as addictions, eating dis- combine self-help methods weather and rain getting you orders, social withdrawal, and along with professional help. down? How about school? suicide. Overcoming depres- Self-help methods that aid de-Midterms and papers creeping sion is the first step to preven- pression are basically things up? Is your lack of social life tion of these as well as creat- to take care of yourself. These or unhealthy relationships ing a happier individual. causing you distress? All of There are three factors that balanced and adequate diet, these things along with nu- can be used as guidelines in setting time aside daily for remerous others are common identifying the difference be- laxation, an exercise program, causes for sadness and de- tween sadness and depres- stress management stratepression in a college student's sion. The first one is the inten- gies, social support and posilife.

good days and bad days; to ex- common to both sadness and guidance and skills to overperience stress; to undergo a depression. In sadness, these come your depression as well loss or disappointment, or to feelings have an identified as an assessment of the unsimply be down. This is espe- cause and a solution that derlying causes of depression. cially true in the college years marks the end to these feel. This is perhaps the most couwhich immerse us with con- ings. In depression these feel- rageous and positive step a stant change within ourselves ings are not only felt, but in- person can make in developas well as in our environment. vade your mind, body and spir- ing a happier lifestyle. In fact, this can even be it. Life becomes an exhausting Depression is common healthy and give us the effort. Sadness is fairly short among our college population chance to explore different in duration and lasts no more due to the fact that we are coping mechanisms that work than two weeks. Depression is constantly changing within for us; to learn about our- more chronic and is beyond ourselves as well as being exselves and how to take care of the level of employing individ- posed to a plethora of new ourselves. Overcoming unhap- ual coping skills. The last dis- ideas in the classroom and piness in our lives can be very tinction is how these feelings among our peers. We are adempowering and increase our are affecting your life as a justing in a real pressure situself efficacy in the long run. It whole. If these feelings take ation and that causes confuis important to be able to dis- over your perceptions, ac- sion and distress which can in tinguish the difference be- tions, and behaviors in all as- turn lead to depression. This tween normal sadness and de- pects of your life, then it is de- can be a very exciting and pression in order to prevent pression. other mental health disorders The most effective way of yourself-beat the blues.

Has a case of the winter that go along with depression combating depression is to sity. Feelings of gloom, dis- tive thinking. Professional It's a part of life to have content, and hopelessness are help can provide you with include proper sleep, eating a pleasurable time. Take care of

by Ginny Ehrlich

ACCELER CONCERCE SYMPTOMS OF DEPRESSION ◄LACK OF PLEASURE IN ACTIVITIES THAT USED TO BE ENJOYED.

- ◄GENERAL LACK OF ENERGY LACK OF MOTIVATION FOR TASK COMPLETION AND
- SOCIAL INVOLVEMENT. ◄FREQUENT CRYING, OFTEN WITHOUT AN IDENTIFIABLE CAUSE.
- ◄LOW SELF-ESTEEM AND SELF-WORTH
- ◄FEELINGS OF LONELINESS.
- IRRITABILITY
- CHRONIC FATIGUE.
- ◄DIFFICULTY CONCENTRATING
- UNDERLYING ANXIETY ◄PHYSICAL SYMPTOMS SUCH AS STOMACH ACHES OR CONSTIPATION.

IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING ANY OF THESE SYMPTOMS AND THEY HAVE PERSISTED FOR MORE THAN TWO WEEKS. PLEASE SEEK PROFESSIONAL HELP.

Alas for my friend the book. It may not tell me what I want to hear but at least it shuts up when I want it to!

HEALING THE CHILD WITHIN by Charles Whitfield. M.D.

This book describes and develops the concept of adult children of troubled or dysfunctional families in general. The child within refers to the part of each of us which is ultimately alive, energetic, creative and fulfilled.

THE COURAGE TO HEAL: A Guide for Women Survivors of Child Sexual Abuse by Ellen Bass & Laura

This inspiring, personal guide offers hope and encouragement to every woman who was sexually abused as a child and those who are around her.

AFTER THE TEARS: Reclaiming the Personal Losses of Childhood by Lori Dwinell.

This book provides guidance and solid treatment direction for Adult Children of Alcoholics, to help work through grief, loss and depression.

ADULT CHILDREN OF ALCOHOLICS by Janet Woititz

This book helps ACOAs understand what happened to them during their childhood, how their characters were affected by their parents' addiction and how to get unstuck in adult life.

-TAKE THAT BREATH-

It sounds simple enough but pay atten- lungs and fresh air. xiety and tension. Taking a deep breath panded your shoulders might even rise or a "diaphragmatic" breath using the slightly to allow for a full and complete muscles at the base of the lungs is the expansion of your lungs. core of all relaxation techniques. Deep . Hold that breath a few seconds and breathing however is not the usual type let it out. of breathing one employs in day to day . Repeat these steps again and feel activities. Try deep breathing and note your body physically relax as you let the difference.

your breasts.

 Now place your right hand on your abyour chest.

from the bottom first, so you need to fill new approach may come to mind. your lower lungs first.

Just taking a deep breath, holding it . Just like the glass filling with water and then releasing it can help you relax. from bottom to top, do so with your tion to your breathing. Chances are it is • Your entire lungs should now be full shallow and irregular during times of an- of air and as your lungs are fully ex-fresh air fill you and leave you.

M

• First place your left hand on your In contrast, most of us shallow chest chest with your thumb on your collar- breath. This type of breathing occurs bone and your little finger just between most often under stress: the upper chest moves and the deep flow of air is not permitted. Most people use only the domen with your little finger on your na- top 1/3 of their lungs in normal everyday vel and your thumb touching your little breathing, denying the remaining 2/3 refinger of your left hand which is still on newal of fresh air. So in times of stress. if we can remember to take a deep • The next step is to inhale, but for a breath, we just might realize that our deep breath your right hand must move stressors are not that bad or even with first. Like an empty glass, you must fill another breath or two, a solution or a

By Veronica Joll

Alcoholic and Dysfunctional Families

inate? Why is it that close relation- learns early on that what they see ships fill some people with fear; an isn't real. This may be translated inability to trust and an inability to into "I can't trust or believe anyonesee oneself as worthy and worth- -even myself." At times the parent while? Where does a lack of self ef- may make promises they later ficacy come from: a feeling of capa- break. So the child who needs bility and self confidence? Adult boundaries and consistencies in children of alcoholics and dysfunc- their world has none. They grow up tional families possess these com- in a topsy-turvy world, never knowmon characteristics and this topic ing when it will be topsy or turvy. has become the theme of numerous books, seminars and psycho- ily instills in the child a lack of self therapeutic interventions. For efficacy. The achievements a child countless young adults grappling attains may be minimized or igwith their sense of self and ability nored or fall short continually. The to grow close to others, the healing mistakes a child makes may be process begins in undoing the dam- highlighted. Translated into adultages of childhood; of growing up in hood, the adult child has no sense a dysfunctional environment.

Denial in the family system occurs when everyone attempts to hide the secret of the addiction.

sages which say "you're no good." these early experiences and the Whether blatantly expressed or in- havoc they wreak in adult life. directly told through innuendoes These events are not the fault of that you don't, can't, won't, meas- the child and blaming oneself is a ure up to some ideal, the cumula- difficult barrier to overcome. tive effects are a feeling of worth- Acknowledging these experilessness.

family system, the parent(s) display The Counseling Center offers onea wide range of moods and commu- on-one counseling and recovery nicate mixed messages. Denial in groups in areas related to adult the family system occurs when ev- children and sexual abuse. Several eryone attempts to hide the secret related books are also available at of the addiction. For a child, this the Student Health Center Health means not developing close friend- Education Library. Also see the covered. A drunk parent isn't drunk- in this issue.

Where does low self esteem orig- -they're upset or sick. So the child

The origin of a dysfunctional famof validation; an ability to trust one's accomplishments and acknowledge these as missing. The parent may also blame the child for their own shortcomings and frustrations. This only deepens the scars.

The adult child of an alcoholic or dysfunctional family may have been abused emotionally, physical-Low self esteem (little self-worth) ly, sexually or all three. The most can be the result of years of mes- difficult part is to acknowledge ences in oneself is the first step to In an alcoholic or drug addicted healing. Seeking help is the next. ships for fear the secret will be dis- booklist and community referral list

The Counseling Center offers support groups for:

- ** Adult Children of Alcoholics
- ** ACOA-Women Only
- ** Recovery: decision making and life without drugs or alcohol
- Sexual Abuse
- as well as one-on-one therapy. Call 346-3217 for more information.
- In Lane County: Adult Children of Alcoholics/683-6533 and 344-8556
- Al-Anon for family and friends of addicts/741-2841

by Daneel Hennagin

Editor: Be	th Gaiser
Director of I	lealth Education: Joanne Frank
Health Educ	ators: Beth Gaiser, Raymond Boyle, Laurene Sheilds, Carmel Crowe, Chrissy Bloome, Valerie Shannon, Annie Dochnahl.
Lavout Desig	n: Melissa Nelson, Beth Gaiser
Peer Health	Advisors: Dana Hiatt, Anna Dudey, Heidi Reeder, Melanie Steed, Ronni Joll, Daneel Hennagin, Ginny Ehrlich, Matt Gripp, Lynette Low, Lori Novich.
Production:	Jennifer Archer, Teri Boring, Alice Cannon, Sandi Daller, Jim Finch, Wendy Morris

The Well Now is a newsletter sponsored by the Student Health Center, and produced by the health education staff with the assistance of the Oregon Daily Emerald. All articles are written by students and GTFs for the health education program. If you have any questions, suggestions or are interested in contributing an article, please call Beth Gaiser at 346-4456 10:30-12:30 MW.