THE EMU CULTURAL FORUM PRESENTS ANOTHER HERITAGE CONCERT
200 YEARS OF AFRO AMERICAN HERITAGE
WITH FRANKIE & DOUG QUIMBY

THE GEORGIA SEA ISLAND SINGERS
in concert

A unique glimpse into the Afro-American Folk heritage through songs, games, dances and stories handed down for over two centuries in the isolated island communities off the coast of Georgia. Audience participation is a keystone of this cultural experience which will strike a familiar chord with people of all ethnic backgrounds and ages. This is a performance full of warmth and joy that also serves as an intense lesson in American history and cultural dynamics.
