

Women nipped by tough Huskies

The Oregon women's basketball team made a valiant effort to knock off fifth-ranked Washington Saturday, but fell short 62-52 against a swarming Husky defense.

The game was closer than the score indicates; the score was tied at 46-46 with 6:47 left in the game. The Huskies' front line outmuscled the Ducks in the final minutes to pull away for the victory.

Oregon center Stefanie Kasperski grabbed 11 rebounds and led all scorers with 22 points, but the Washington inside game was overpowering.

Senior center Amy Mickelson utilized an indefensible hook shot to dump in 21 points for the Huskies. Junior forward

Karen Deden shot 10-for-17 for 21 points and grabbed 13 boards.

"Washington is a very good team, a very quick team," Heiny said. "Their post players are playing extremely well — both inside and outside. That hook shot, which was shot when I was growing up, they were very good at."

The Husky defense played a pressure halfcourt defense that stymied Oregon's offense. The Ducks, normally a threat from
