

Women rout Pilots

By Ashley Conklin
Emerald Sports Reporter

It was a clean sweep for the women's tennis team against Portland Thursday afternoon as Oregon won every match to beat the Pilots 9-0.

The Ducks took all six singles matches and the three doubles matches, improving its record to 4-3.

The only real serious challenge for the Ducks came at No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles, but Kumi Nagamoto held off Theresa Holloway at No. 1 singles with a 7-5, 6-0 victory and Oregon's No. 1 doubles team of Nagamoto and Amber Goheen did the same, beating Holloway and Joelle Etue, 7-6 (7-5), 6-3.

Although Oregon and the Portland aren't exactly equal teams, Greider said he thought the match was important for the Ducks.

"Sometimes you might only be 1 percent stronger than the other team and still beat them 6-0," he said. "We might have been 1 percent stronger, but the scores certainly weren't all 6-0."

"It's always nice to play other teams and people you don't know and get some good, quality matches," Greider added.

Battling the cold winds at the outdoor courts as well as bronchitis, Nagamoto trailed 5-2 in the first set against Holloway before winning the next 11 games to take the opening set 7-5 and the second set 6-0.

"Theresa is a good player and Kumi couldn't control her shot selection because of the wind," Greider said. "She made some adjustments when she was down 5-2 and then won the 11 straight games."

The doubles team of Nagamoto-Goheen also had some problems against Holloway-Etue, leading 5-2 in the first set before Holloway-Etue took the next four games to go up 6-5. Nagamoto and Goheen rallied to pull off the tiebreaker and then won the last three games of the second set to win the match.

Although Nagamoto had earlier beaten Holloway and Goheen beat Etue in No. 3 singles (6-3, 6-4), Greider said that didn't guarantee a doubles win for his top team.

"Doubles is completely different from singles; it's like apples and oranges," he said.

In other action, Hilary Roberts won her No. 2 singles match over Sandy Quilter, 6-1, 6-1; Shelley Brandt beat Ramona Domen 6-1, 6-2 at No. 4 singles; Margaret Fraleigh won at No. 5 singles over Becky Bauer, 6-1, 6-1; and in No. 6 singles, Jackie DeFord topped Midori Karasuwan, 6-2, 6-0.

In other doubles play, the No. 2 team of Roberts-Brandt beat Quilter-Domen 6-0, 6-3 and the No. 3 team of Fraleigh-DeFord defeated Bauer and Darci Brosnan 6-4, 6-0.

Twin bill set for softball

The Oregon softball team opens its 1990 home season Saturday with a non-conference double header against Oregon State at Howe Field. The twin bill begins at noon.

The Ducks started off slowly, losing seven of their first 10 games, but have rebounded to win seven of nine for a 10-9 record this season.

Oregon is led by sophomore pitcher Katie Wiese, who has a 7-3 record and a 1.32 earned run average in 15 appearances. As a team, Oregon is batting .267 on the season and is led by Julie Cavanaugh with a .417 average so far.

University students are admitted free with valid fee cards. Adult admission is $3. Children's and senior citizens' admission is $2.
