test have gone through non-violence workshops and attended weekly meetings in preparation for the trip. The workshops help students clarify their beliefs, prepare to defuse hostile situations and learn to communicate effectively.

"The trip is really an affirmation of what we stand for, personally," Wynne said. "People go for personal reasons as much as for the larger social reasons."

Students have also held benefit concerts to raise money for the trip and solicited food donations from local restaurants to defray costs.

Protesters will stay at the American Peace test camp-ground, located on land owned by the Bureau of Land Management near the test site.

ANXIETY

FREE MEDICAL TREATMENT

You may be eligible for a research study if you are over 21 and suffer from anxiety, worry, nervousness, inner tension and physical symptoms of stress (headache, sweating, dry mouth, pounding heart, etc.). This research has been federally approved and is taking place in several large cities. If you meet the criteria for generalized anxiety disorder without a seriously depressed mood, you may receive free screening and medical treatment for up to two months. Individuals with alcohol or drug abuse, or poorly controlled medical problems cannot be accepted for this research. Women of childbearing potential must be using a medically acceptable form of birth control.
