LCC celebrating 25th year

The public is invited to an evening of dining and dancing, memories and merriment as Lane Community College celebrates its 25th anniversary with a Silver Gala on Friday, April 27, at the Eugene Hilton.

"The gala is the culmination of a year-long celebration of LCC's 25th anniversary," said Joe Farmer, director of the LCC Foundation. "It's an opportunity for the community to share in our celebration and to enjoy an evening of food and entertainment. It's also an opportunity for the college to raise funds for much-needed scholarships."

The gala evening starts at 6:30 with the Silver Silent Auction. Guests will be able to bid on more than 20 packages of goods and services provided by Lane County businesses, municipalities, and civic organizations. There will be, for example, a Eugene package, a golf package, a garden package, a bakery package, and a grandma and grandpa package.

Following the auction, Gov. Neil Goldschmidt will deliver the keynote address, and a formal dinner will be served by the Hilton catering service.

"Swing Shift," a 17-piece band that plays music from the '30s, '40s and '50s will provide music for dancing from 10 p.m. to midnight. The LCC archivists will also mount a special photo-documentary of LCC's first 25 years.

Tickets for LCC's 25th Anniversary Silver Gala are $62.50 per person or $125 per couple. Front row tables for eight are available for $1,000, other tables cost $500. The cost of a ticket is tax deductible, except for the cost of the dinner which is $20.

To order tickets to the gala, or for more information, contact Joe Farmer at the LCC Foundation, 726-2226.

JANE GOODALL

Tuesday, April 10
7:30pm, Hult Center

One July 14, 1960, Jane Goodall, a 26-year-old woman from Bournemouth, England stepped from a government launch onto the sandy shore of Lake Tanganyika. She had been sent by the famed anthropologist/paleontologist, Dr. Louis S.B. Leakey, to begin a long-term study of chimpanzees in the wild. Jane's arrival at Gombe began the fulfillment of a twofold childhood dream: "to study animals in Africa and to write about them."

Tickets available at the Hult Center, 687-5000 and authorized outlets. Student discounts available.

Presented by The Institute for Science, Engineering and Public Policy. Co-sponsored by KLUCC 89.1 FM, Portland State University Continuing Education, The Waggoner Group, Oregon Advanced Computing Institute and Oregon Public Broadcasting. Special thanks to the Eugene Hilton.
