

Chemistry & Conscience.

Internationally heralded as one of the most extraordinary quartets of our time, the Emerson String Quartet blends its rich and elegant musicianship with a technical perfection that leaves critics groping for words.

Named after the great philosopher Ralph Waldo Emerson, the Quartet has a commitment to life that encompasses more than art: all four members are active with the Performing Artists for Nuclear Disarmament, and have presented benefit concerts for the cause of global peace and the fight against world hunger.

Be with us on April 12 as these men of conscience turn music into magic.
