

Earth Week to offer speakers, panel discussions

Events geared to educate and entertain

Earth Week 1990 begins today with activities taking place throughout the city. In celebration of the Earth, a variety of speakers and workshops are being offered on campus.

The week will culminate with Earth Day on Sunday. A fair that includes music, speakers and food booths will be held at Alton Baker Park.

Monday

- Pete Sorenson, Eugene public interest attorney, will explore legal avenues open to citizens pursuing environmental litigation at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- A panel discussion on the politics of hemp use will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- Quincy Sugarman, OSPIRC environmental advocate, will address the love/hate relationship between U.S. consumers and their garbage at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- A panel discussion on the potential of solar energy will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- Learn about the Oregon Recycling Act in the EMU Ben Linder Room at 4:30 p.m.
- Keynote discussion. Speakers include Mary O'Brien, biologist and director of Northwest Coalition for Alternatives to Pesticide; Robert DeSpain, founder of an organically grown food co-op; Barbara Kelly, founder and director of Save our Ecosystems; and Jerry Powell, editor of Resource Recovery. Portland. 7:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- International speakers recount the struggle to save the Chiapas rain forests of Southern Mexico. 7:30 p.m. in Room 100 Willamette.

Tuesday

- Environmental and ethnic student organizations present findings of the University's environmental audit at 9 a.m. in the EMU Fir Rooms.
- A slide presentation and discussion of Oregon's High Desert and the Steens Mountains at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- A look at Oregon's endangered coastal environment and wildlife with Palmer Sekora from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will take place at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- A historical look at the ancient forests of Eastern America and Europe with author and scholar John Perlin will take place at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- "Living theater" performance by students will be at 4:30 p.m. in the Villard Hall Pocket Theater.
- A debate on the Eugene Nuclear Free Zone will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- The People's Law School and Oregon Trial Lawyers present steps you can take to create, protect, or enforce environmental laws at 7:00 p.m. in the Law School.
- The Earth Ball. An annual dance to celebrate, rock, and dance for the Earth at 8:00 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

Wednesday

- Learn why the market for recycled resources is depressed when the popularity of recycling is growing at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir

Room.

- Mark Bradford Evans, Ph.D., clinical psychologist, novelist and poet, will describe historical changes in human consciousness and their implications for our relationship with nature. 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.

- Author and U.S. Senate candidate Robert Reuschlein will show how military spending and pollution hurts societies at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.

- Carol Alexander, Greenpeace Offshore Oil Drilling Campaign coordinator, will trace how Oregon was slow to react to the federal government's plan for offshore oil drilling at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- Judith Plant, feminist author and editor, will discuss the incorporation of eco-feminism in the bioregional and green movement at 6 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- Hazel Henderson, author, futurist, lecturer, consultant and television producer, will explore economic structures that can be both ecologically and economically sound. 7:30 p.m. EMU Ballroom.

Thursday

- Discussion and workshop on ethics, values and finer points of "ecotage" at noon in the EMU Courtyard.
- Slide show and discussion on the ecology, economics and politics of Pacific Northwest ancient forests at 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- A panel discussion of how environmentalists and labor can work together and share common arguments against timber corporation mismanagement and union busting at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.

- Andy Kerr, director of conservation and education, Oregon Natural Resources Council, and Mike Roselle, co-founder of Earth First! and Rainforest Action Network, will discuss the struggle to save the ancient forests of the Pacific Northwest at 7 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

Friday

- An all-day workshop exploring multicultural and gender relationships in social change movements will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.
- A video and lecture about human rights activism worldwide by Sharon Titus from Amnesty International will be held at 2 p.m. in the EMU Ben Linder Room.
- A discussion by Michael Cohen, environmental psychologist and founder/director of the National Audubon Society's Expedition Institute, at 7:30 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room.

• A multicultural musical celebration of Earth Day featuring, among others, University Singers, guitarist Jim Scott, and the Bethel Temple Children's choir will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

Saturday

- Kids Earth Day Celebration featuring art, music and games will be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Education Building Courtyard.
- Cougar Hot Springs caretakers orientation and training for caretakers from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the EMU Cedar rooms C and D.
- An art exhibit exploring the effects of fire in Western Oregon from noon to 5 p.m. in the Museum of Natural History.
- Movie: The Atomic Cafe 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. in Room 180 PLC.
- Author John Robbins will discuss how dietary choice affects the environment and our health at 7 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.
- Dance performance by the Radar Angels followed by a dance with Kudana, a Eugene marimba band, at 8:30 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

Bring in a Roll of Film and get a

Free Big Mac!

the Shutterbug!
WE SAVE YOU MONEY

890 E. 13th — 342-3456
Valid only at the Villard Street McDonald's

Start Spring With a Free Big Mac

COUPON

Free! Big Mac

Just bring in your color film and get a Free Big Mac! With this coupon

You must present this coupon to The Shutterbug with a roll of film to be developed and printed at our every day low price. The Shutterbug will validate this coupon. Then take the Validated coupon to McDonalds located on Villard St. and they will give you a Free Big Mac® Sandwich. The coupon must be validated by the Shutterbug. Coupon validated April 16 to April 24. You may redeem your validated coupon for a Free Big Mac® by April 30, 1990 at McDonalds. Limit One Coupon per person with one or more rolls of film. No limit on film processing — limit One Big Mac® per person.

Store Use

VALID ONLY AT THE VILLARD ST. McDONALDS

TODAY is the LAST DAY! to purchase ASUO HEALTH INSURANCE for Spring Term.

$147.00 — includes Summer Room 15 EMU bring Fee Card