Three students arrested for Earth Week auto fire

Eugene police arrested three University students late Friday in connection with the Tuesday night burning of the Earth Week car display near the EMU Courtyard.

Chad Anthony Turner, 20, was charged with first-degree arson. Grant Andrew Jones and Richard Mason Lawrence, both 20, were charged with conspiracy to commit first-degree arson.

Turner and Jones live at the Kappa Sigma fraternity at 1090 Alder St. Police did not list an address for Lawrence.

All three were released Saturday afternoon on $500 bail each.

Police allege the three burned the Earth Week display, a 1976 Cadillac, at about 10:40 p.m. Friday.
