SHOAH WEEK APRIL 22 - 29, 1990 UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

The twentieth anniversary of Earth Day April 22 coincides with a very important and somber date in the Jewish calendar: Yom Hashoah, or Holocaust Memorial Day. This is the day set aside in memorial to honor the souls of the eleven million people of all backgrounds, the thousands of towns and villages, and the thriving centers of Jewish culture, which perished in the Shoah (Hebrew for Holocaust). Marking this dark point in world history, Yom Hashoah allows the world a chance to stop and think and to never allow a tragedy of this magnitude to happen again.
