

Club soccer goes 3-3 with win over COCC

Oregon men's Club Soccer ran its record to 3-3 last Friday with a 3-0 shutout win over Central Oregon Community College at Eugene's Southbank Field.

Sam Maccarrone led the Ducks with two goals with John Farnum chipping in a single.

Wes Cedros had two assists while Jason Johnson and Mike King each had one.

The Ducks' next action is today in a 5 p.m. game at Southbank with Peacock Tavern of Corvallis. The game will be something of a Civil War as the Peacock Tavern has several players from Oregon State University. Club spokesman Maccarrone said.

The Ducks lost to Peacock on March 30 in Corvallis by a 3-1 score.

The women's Club Soccer team won by forfeit over High Street Pub and Brew last Friday to go 8-0 this season. The women meet Players "A" of the Eugene city leagues next Monday.

Club Lacrosse

Rob English had four goals and four assists and Rob Haggerty chipped in five goals and an assist as the Club Lacrosse team took control early to crush Oregon State, 19-5.

Joel Holland and John O'Dea each had three goals while Pete Adamson and Tom Johnston

Cory first in tennis meet

University of Oregon tennis players took first place in two different events last weekend to highlight the Spring Tennis Championships here at Oregon's courts.

Kevin Cory beat Oregon recruit Nick Smith in the finals of the Men's open singles by a 6-4, 6-1 score to take the championship in that division. Cory beat Gregg Furukawa of Eugene to advance while Smith was disposing of Ted Invie of Portland.

The team of Ted Rubin and Shelley Brandt, both University players, took first in mixed doubles by beating Dave Crofut and Sherry Fairgrieve of Corvallis, 6-4, 6-3.

Rubin and Brandt beat Yuno Hashimoto and Noguchi of Lacey, Wash. in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0.

Cory and Smith also advanced to the finals of the men's open doubles, only to lose to Edwin Jaffarian and Mike Kingsley of Eugene by a 6-2, 6-7, 6-4 score.

Oregon's team of Ted Thorin and Christian Oelke lost to Jaffarian and Kingsley in the opening round of men's open doubles, 6-3, 6-1.

each added a pair to help Oregon's attack.

Defensemen Scott Danford, Carl White and Zack Povey were all solid on defense with Rob Toni turning in a solid performance at goal.

Oregon's record now stands at 8-2 with a game this Friday in Seattle with University of Washington.

Club Fencing

Farrell Hopkins and Ian Valentine of Oregon Club Fencing were third and fifth, respectively, for the Ducks Saturday in the Oregon State Standard Foil Tournament in Corvallis.

Aaron Potter, Laurie Goner, Brent Lane, Milt Beral and Joel White also participated in the tournament for Oregon. There were a total of 16 fencers participating.
