

Pac-10 honors three Oregon softballers

Three Oregon players were named to the first team Pacific-10 softball All-Conference team, Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen announced Tuesday.

Junior catcher Joely Eilers and junior first baseman Julie Cavanaugh were named, with sophomore Anna Poore earning a spot on the team as a utility player. Cavanaugh joined Arizona's Nicki Dennis as the only first team members repeating from last season.

Oregon outfielder Jeanna King was named to the All-Conference second team.

Top-ranked UCLA and Arizona dominated selections on both teams with three players from each school on the first team and four each on the second team.

Pitcher Heather Compton of UCLA was named the Conference Player of the Year and Bruin coach Sharon Backus was named Coach of the Year.

Compton currently sports a 14-1 record with 14 complete games and a .33 ERA. Backus, in her 15th year as UCLA coach, has led the Bruins to a school record 53 wins. UCLA has clinched the Pac-10 title with a 16-2 conference record. The Bruins are 53-6 overall.

Compton continued a trend of a freshman winning player of the year. Last season, freshman pitcher Katie Wiese of Oregon was named to the first team and took home player of the year honors.

Wiese was snubbed from the team this year as was California's Michele Granger, who leads the nation in strikeouts and is among the national leaders in several other categories.

Wiese did receive an honor Tuesday as she was named Pac-10 Player of the Week after getting four wins last week, including a pair of 1-0 shutouts over nationally ranked California.

Oregon's ace pitched 18 scoreless innings against the Bears in 85-degree weather last Friday and also beat Portland State 7-1 and Oregon State 7-0 and 1-0. She has won nine straight games.

Wiese is the second Oregon player to win the honor this year. Cavanaugh was named for the week of April 24.

TODAY!

Tell it to the president. All students are invited to an open forum with President Myles Brand, 3:30-5:00 p.m., today, Wednesday, May 9, Room 150 Columbia Hall. Speak out. It's your future.

Moderator, Marlene Drescher, Director, Office of Student Advocacy. This is another in a series of opportunities for students to meet with the president to discuss issues of mutual concern.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM & CAMPUS COMMUNITY TASK FORCE PRESENTS:

The Lloyd Jones Struggle

An Evening of Rhythm and Blues

Saturday, May 12
Field west of Hayward Field

Doors open 6:00pm
Show starts 8:00pm

(No glass containers!)

Barbara Healey and the All Nighterz

Curtis Salgado and the Stiletos

ITEMS NEW · USED · ABUSED

ART AND SCHOOL SUPPLY

SPRING CLEANING

Sale

UO Bookstore

13th & Kincaid M-F 7:30-6:00 SAT 10:00-6:00 346-4331

DOS PATOS

Mexican Food

WATCH FOR DAILY SPECIALS

◀1219 Alder▶

INTERNATIONAL BALL '90

9 pm - 1 am.

International Desserts

May 11th, EMU Ballroom

Dance to the Big Band Sound of "Swing Shift"

A Chance to Win a Round Trip for Two at Disneyland.

TICKETS $5 Single, $8 Couples

Sponsored by the Ballroom Dance Club, U. of O. Residence Halls, and the International Student Association.

Looking for a good deal?? Read the Oregon Daily Emerald Classifieds.

