

'Lady Champion Fiddler' to play Sunday

Champion fiddler Carol Anne Wheeler performs in a variety of fiddling styles, such as Irish, Texas, Canadian and Cross-tune. She has played all over the U.S., Canada and Japan as a solo artist and as a part of the duo Pickin' and Fiddlin'. This summer she will perform in Scotland.

Most of the fiddles Wheeler uses are antiques, many of them about 200 years old. Her favorite fiddle belonged to her great, great, great grandfather who was born in 1795.

She recently released her fifth album, The Joy of Twin Fiddlin', which was a joint project with her partner Linda Danieson. Wheeler also has 13 years' experience as a workshop teacher for potential fiddlers and completed an instructional tape, The Joy of Learning Fiddle.

African marimba band to play

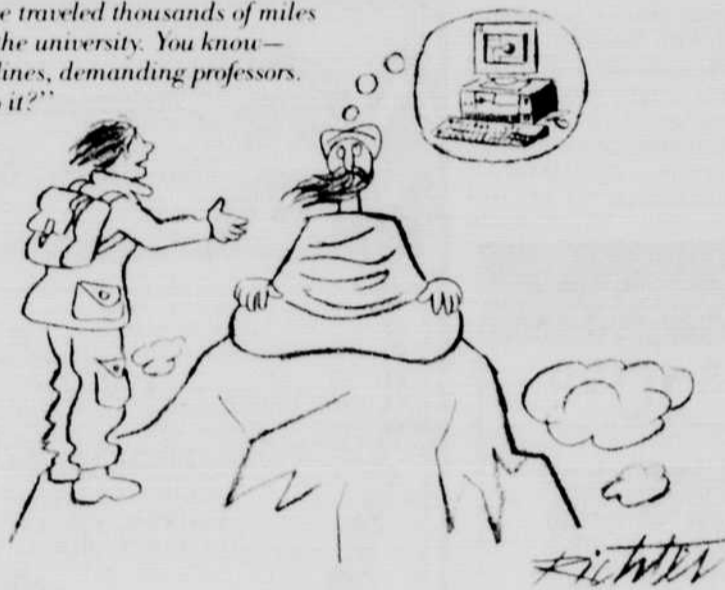

The origin of Kudana's music comes from Africa, members of the group said. Their shows consist of high energy African dance music, and the repertoire includes both traditional and original songs.

Performers in Kudana sing and use a variety of instruments, which are all hand-built and tuned instrumentally. Many of the traditional marimba songs they play come from Zimbabwe.

The name "kudana," according to the group, means "to love one another by singing and dancing together."
