

Briefly

Stadium to open for camping at June Grateful Dead shows

The Grateful Dead concerts scheduled at Autzen Stadium will allow camping for concert patrons. The June 23 and 24 shows and the band's Sacramento date will be the only sites on the 1990 tour that will allow camping.

Camping area will open at noon on Friday, June 22. Campers are encouraged to arrive by 8 a.m. on June 23 to ensure a camping spot. The area will close at 10 p.m. on Monday, June 25.

The charge for camping is $20 per vehicle and will be open only to campers holding tickets to both concerts only. There will be no in/out privileges for campers. If vehicles leave campground, no re-entry will be permitted without paying the camping fee again.

Entry to the camping area will be through entry number four at the East entrance to Autzen Stadium parking lot off Centennial Boulevard.

Advance tickets are now available for $26 at Fred Meyer FASTIXX outlets and Hult Center Box Office. For more information on tickets or phone orders, call 224-TIXX.

WOW Hall features creative performers

African rhythms will rock tonight

The Community Center for the Performing Arts (also known as the WOW Hall), 291 W. Eighth Ave., will host a diverse group of musical performers over the next two weeks.

Beginning tonight, Portland band Obo Addy and Kukrudu will perform their brand of African music at the WOW. Obo Addy, a native of Ghana, West Africa, has toured the United States extensively sharing his blend of West African music.

His band, Kukrudu, consists of seven other members who use western and authentic hand-crafted instruments to perform African rhythms.

Tickets for the concert which begins at 9:30 p.m. are $7 in advance and $8 at the door. Advance tickets are available at Balladeer Music, EMU Main Desk, House of Records, Record Garden, Happy trails and at the WOW Hall.

On Saturday, X-Piracy and The Bad Daddies will perform at 9:30 p.m. Advance tickets for the show are $7 and are available at the above locations.

On Thursday, June 7, Shumba and Ephat Mujuru will perform their brand of mbira and marimba to combine an evening of mystique and joyful celebration.

Ephat Mujuru, famous for his master story telling style, will share his mbira-playing with the audience for the first part of the evening. Following his performance, local band Shumba will take to the stage with their marimba sounds to thrill audiences.

Rabbit Choir will perform at Wow Hall Friday, June 8, adding to list of diverse performers lined up to play during the next few weeks.

Advance tickets for the show are available at $5 and tickets at the door will be sold at $6.

The Rabbit Choir and The Good Madmen will take to the WOW Hall stage Friday, June 8 at 9:30 p.m.

The Rabbit Choir is a six-piece eclectic rock and roll band which plays all original high-energy music. Be prepared to hear some lyrics that will stress political, social and ecological themes.

The Good Madmen are local artists who have expanded their sound since their last WOW Hall appearance, having added drums and bass to their sound. The band also has some wild new additions to their song-list of highly original, gritty and street-wise music.

Admission to the show is $5 at the door.
