The 1990 Oregon Country Fair closed Sunday after its 21st year of down-to-earth entertainment, exhibits and food. Hot and dusty fairgoers (above) were hosed down near the fair's main stage, getting relief from the 90-plus degree afternoons. Jeremy Dittmar of Eugene, who spent his time at the fair cooling others off with a squirt gun, was held down by Paul Neumann while a friend gave him a taste of his own medicine. Through it all, acts such as The Fearless Kundalini Brothers (top left) exhibited musical, comedy, and acrobatic acts.
