Eugene/Springfield area nightclubs provide unique atmospheres, specials and entertainment nightly.

Coconut Joes, 66 E. Sixth St., provides an incredible view of Eugene from atop the Eugene Hilton. A Caribbean atmosphere complete with palm trees, murals and neon lights provides an exotic place for dancing.

Monday through Thursday, Coconut Joes features theme nights. The themes vary depending on current events and seasons.

According to Assistant Manager Ray Alvarado, Thursday night is Ladies Night. The Club features a 'reverse cover charge', where each woman receives $2 at the door rather than paying the cover. On Thursday evenings there are also games and giveaways for the women.

Monday through Friday from 5-7 p.m. your first order of nachos is free and drafts, margaritas, and wine are 99¢.

A DJ spins records every night from 8-2. Coconut Joes also features a complete appetizer and tropical drink menu.

Arrive early if you want a table because the club is always packed. The atmosphere is energetic and exciting although the dance floor is small.

Oregon Electric Station, 27 E. Fifth Ave., provides three lounges for customers to enjoy. The Sports Lounge, Main Lounge, and Jazz Depot Lounge are each unique.

The Sports Lounge is complete with a big screen television for viewing sports events while the Jazz Depot Lounge features live jazz on Friday and
