

University Theatre

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

ROBINSON
STAGE

◆ Burn This
Eastern Standard
Dance '91
Three Sisters
Stephen Sondheim's Newest
Musical Fairy Tale

SECOND SEASON

◆ We Won't Pay We Won't Pay
TBA
Cloud Nine
Elmatha's Apology
Byrthrite

SEASON
TICKETS

CALL TODAY 346-4191!

WOW

Continued from Page 22

said. "The organizers weren't self-serving or theatrical," he added. Newhouse joined CCPA in 1984 after a dance group he was involved in, Dance Oasis, performed in the hall.

"The Hall provides a performance space and space to been key to the survival of the hall, Schaefer said.

Months of working without pay, and staff staying overnight in the hall to keep the sawdust boiler running were common in the past, she said. The hall recently purchased a new natural gas heating system, so the days of dancers with cold feet are over.

'The Hall provides a performance space and space to dance in, found nowhere else in the community.'

— Bruce Newhouse

dance in found nowhere else in the community," Newhouse said. He compared the Hall with the Hult Center, which he called too exclusive.

Grants from neighborhood groups, the city and national arts organizations have helped, but dedicated staff people and a strong volunteer program have

Schaefer said the staff is dedicated now to making the hall financially stable, a goal which has proved daunting in the past.

Schaefer also stressed the importance of the hall as a place where people can come to have fun and hear new music and new musicians.

"People might not think of it in a political or economic sense, but we all have musicians we love, who are accomplished," Schaefer said. "It's important to support people less supported in developing their art."

EMU Cultural Forum Presents

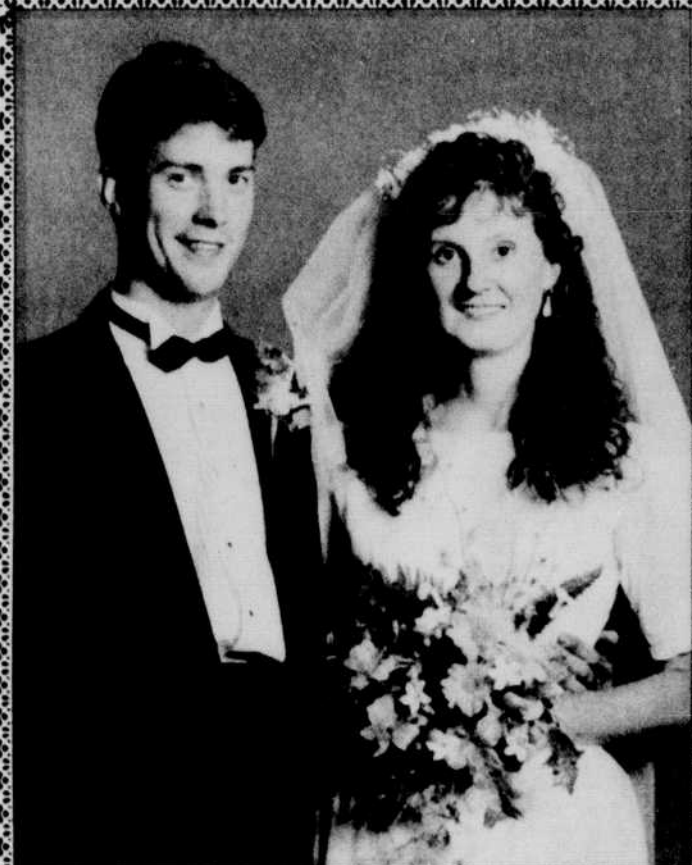

In Association with Balladeer Music

Johnny Clegg & Savuka
Sunday, Oct. 7, 8pm
in the EMU Ballroom

Tickets: $16 General Public
$14 UO Student

Available at: Face the Music, CD World
Balladeer Music,
Record Garden
and the EMU Main Desk

Special Guest: TBA

Congratulations
Stan & Betsy

From your friends at the ODE

GET IN LINE WITH YOUR GROCER.

And you'll find just about the best friend you've got in the struggle against heart disease. Because today's grocer—more than ever—knows what it takes to make smart food choices that will taste good and be good for your health.

And that's why you'll probably find your favorite grocery store participating in American Heart's Food Festival September 10-16. Offering you dozens of mouth-watering as well as heart-helping tips on buying and cooking your favorite foods. Ideas that—in a fun way—can change your menus. And—in a serious way—can change your life.

American Heart's
Food Festival

American Heart Association

"900 lbs.
Of Fresh
Potatoes
Says
BUBBA'S
PLACE Has The Best Fries Around."

That's right. Imagine. 900 lbs. of fresh potatoes. And that's just in the average weekend. That doesn't even include the french fries we serve up during the week! Fresh fries, skin and all. In regular or Cajun-style.

Bubba's Place. The Place.

-Mrs. P

Bubba's Place

1249 Alder Street
(Across from Sacred Heart on Alder)

344-1960

OPEN LATE EVERYDAY