INSIDE

WHILE YOU WERE AWAY—

A look at the happenings around Eugene this past summer, including: the closing of the Opportunity Shelter for the homeless and the protests that the closing caused; the remains of Nathan Madsen were found this summer just two and a half miles from where he was last seen; and the City Council is seriously looking at moving the Eugene Public Library to the old Sears building.

HOUSING—

Finding reasonably priced housing in Eugene has been an on-going problem for University students. The market this year does not look much better.

VOLUNTEER—

Eugene is amass with community service agencies and support programs. Many of these programs use volunteer workers to staff their offices, deliver meals to the elderly and transport people to meetings. The Volunteer Connection connects potential volunteers with positions matching their qualifications.

See story, Page 9

EMPLOYMENT—

Many students need to work at part-time jobs during the school year to help subsidize their education and living expenses. A variety of temporary agencies and job listing services are available in the community and on campus.

See story, Page 10

BREW—

Micro-breweries are growing in number and in popularity. More and more University students are partaking of the locally produced beverages.

Call and say Hello!

Whether you're back from summer vacation or just starting at the U of O, give EWEB a call so we can transfer your water and electric service to your name if it is not already included in your rent.

We'll come and read your meter. That way you'll only be billed for the services you use.

So call EWEB today. It will give us a chance to transfer your service and say, "Welcome!"
