Musgrave vs. Detmer a big draw

By Ashley Conklin

The largest crowd to ever see a sporting event in the state could be on hand Saturday at Autzen Stadium when Oregon and Brigham Young hook-up in a nationally televised game by ABC.

Last season's Oregon State-Oregon Civil War game drew 46,087 fans, the largest Autzen crowd ever and the largest crowd to ever see a sporting event in Oregon. However, that figure could likely be topped when the fourth-ranked Cougars meet the Ducks.

Oregon's Sports Information Department said late Tuesday only 200 reserved seats were left for the 12:38 p.m. contest and all general admission tickets were gone when the ticket office closed.

Approximately 2,000 standing room tickets were still available after the ticket office closed and student tickets were completely gone. However, students will be able to purchase special standing room tickets for $6 when the ticket office opens at 9 a.m. today.

The excitement over Saturday's BYU-Oregon game began building after last year's game when the Cougars rallied to beat the Ducks 45-41 in Provo, Utah. Oregon led 33-14 at one point and quarterbacks Ty Detmer and Bill Musgrave put on a record show for the Cougar Stadium crowd.

Musgrave threw for 489 yards to set the current Oregon single-game passing record while Detmer had 470 yards. The 959 combined yards set an NCAA record for two opposing players while both set another NCAA record with 960 yards of total offense.

Saturday's game promises to be another high-scoring shootout with two of the best quarterbacks in the nation leading the way.

Detmer, the early-season Heisman Trophy favorite, leads an offense that tops the nation in passing offense (438.8 yards per game) and is second in total offense (562.8 yards per game). The Cougars also average 42.5 points per game.

The Ducks' offense fell off a little in this week's NCAA statistics after their 22-17 loss to Arizona. However, Oregon is still 17th in passing offense, 13th in total offense and also averages 38 points per contest.

Musgrave has already broken the Autzen Stadium record for most passing yardage and most total offense with 443 and 468 yards, respectively, in the Ducks' season-opener against San Diego State.

This will be Oregon's first nationally televised game since Nov. 5, 1988 when UCLA defeated Oregon 16-6 at Autzen Stadium. Brent Musberger and Dick Vermeil will call the action from Autzen Saturday with Mark Jones reporting from the sidelines.

Women fifth after first day

The women's golf team, hosting the Oregon Women's Golf Invitational at the Royal Oaks Country Club in Vancouver, Wash., was fifth after the first day of competition Monday.

The 54-hole tournament continued through Tuesday and will conclude today. Tuesday's results were unavailable at press time.

Arizona, last year's Pacific-10 Conference runner-up led after the first day, holding a four-stroke lead over UCLA, last year's NCAA runner-up. The Wildcats shot a six-over par 302 while the Bruins shot a 306.

The Ducks, led by Lynn Yonemoto, were 34 strokes of the lead Monday. Oregon fired a first-day 336 with Yonemoto recording an 81. Yonemoto was tied for 14th, individually.

Leigh Hornung was the next best Duck duffer with an 83 to tie for 23rd place Monday. Starla Yamada, Beth Manczak and Nancy Crawford were all tied for 30th with 85s. Teammates Laura Bleyhl and Leigh Casey also fired a 91 and a 93, respectively. Bleyhl was 42nd while Casey was tied for 43rd.

Arizona's Debbie Parks was the individual leader after Monday's play, firing a two-under par 72. The Wildcats had three other golfers finish in the top 10.

Annika Sorenstam and Mette Hagemen tied for third with 76s while Wildcat teammate Susan Slaughter shoot a 78, tying her for eighth. Slaughter was the NCAA champion a year ago.

UCLA was led by Debbie Koyama who finished second Monday, notching a 73.

Men's cross country team ranked sixth in poll

The Oregon men's cross country team was again in the nation's Top 20 poll this week as the Ducks hold down the number six spot.

Coach Bill Dellinger's team is the top-ranked Pacific-10 Conference team in the poll while two other Pac-10 schools cracked the Top 20 rankings.

Washington was ranked eighth in the poll released Tuesday while Arizona checked in at number nine. The Big 10 Conference was the only other conference with three schools in the Top 20.

Iowa holds down the number one spot this week while Arkansas and Wisconsin are second and third, respectively.

After winning the Emerald City Invitational in Seattle last Saturday, Oregon will be back in action this weekend, competing in the Mountain West Classic in Missoula, Mont. The Ducks' seven entries in the meet are expected to be Colin Dalton, Pat Haller, Andy Maris, Rick Mestler, Mike Shannon, Colden Baxter and Shannon Lemora.

Meanwhile, Oregon's volleyball team again received votes for the coaches NCAA poll and the Tachikara/AVCA polls, but were unable to make either Top 20.

The Ducks were one of five schools receiving 10 votes or more for the Tachikara poll while being one of nine schools that received votes but didn't make the coaches poll.

Coach Gerry Gregory's team returns to action this weekend with matches against UCLA and USC in Los Angeles. UCLA is the top-ranked team in the Tachikara poll and second in the coaches poll.
