EVENTS

ets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door.

Monday, Oct. 1

Oregon Jazz Quartet will open its 1990-91 Faculty Artist Series season at 8 p.m. in Beall Concert Hall, 961 E. 18th. The quartet features Steve Owen on saxophone, Edward Kammerer on keyboards, Charles Dowd on drums and Forrest Moyer, bass. Tickets, available at the door, are $2 general and $1 students.

First Monday Coffee House begins at 7 p.m. in the skylight area of the EMU. The Coffee House features an open stage for local acoustic musicians, and anyone interested in performing can sign up the day of the event by calling 346-4373. All performers will play for 15 minutes or play three songs, whichever is first.

Wednesday, Oct. 3

American Indian Dance Theatre will perform at 8 p.m. in the Hult Center's Silva Concert Hall. As part of the Hult Center's World Dance Series, this troupe has captured and preserved their cultural heritage through performance. Tickets are $15, $12.50 and $10, with a $4 discount on student tickets while they last.

VISUAL ARTS

Friday, Sept. 28

Blue Tarp Installations, a solo show of nine sight-specific works by Eugene artist Mike Walsh, will open in the EMU Gallery. The large-scale works combine standard blue tarps with plexiglass boxes containing constructed and appropriated objects. A reception will be held tonight from 6-8 and the exhibit will continue through October 12.

Sunday, Sept. 30

Pets and People, a comprehensive exhibit encompassing many aspects of animals and veterinary medicine, will have its grand opening at Willamette Science and Technology Center (WISTEC), 2300 Centennial, from 12-5 p.m. The grand opening theme is "A Day on the Farm" and will feature pony rides and a petting zoo, to name a few. The exhibit will continue through November 4. Admission is $3 adults, $2.50 seniors and students.

Wednesday, Oct. 3

Irena Klepfisz, a poet, Yiddishist, Middle East peace activist author, will hold a book signing and reading session at 4 p.m. in the EMU's Maple Room. Her books include Dreams of an Insomniac: Jewish Feminist Essays, Speeches and Diatribes and A Few Words in the Mother Tongue: Poems Selected and New.
