Ducks earn split by beating USC

By Robert Weber
Emerald Sports Reporter

Oregon's volleyball squad showed its determination Saturday night by knocking off USC in four tough games to earn a split on what could be its toughest road trip of the year.

The Ducks' 16-14, 12-15, 15-12, 15-10 victory over the Trojans helped ease the hurt

The weekend split left the Ducks all alone in third place in the Pacific-10 Conference with an 11-4 overall record and 3-2 conference mark.

"We didn't play very well and UCLA played great, in fact, they had a near-perfect match," Oregon Coach Gerry Gregory said.

"We didn't hit for a very high efficiency and our biggest problem was that we didn't pass well enough to run our offense against a good blocking team in UCLA," Gregory said. "It was an awful combination for us so the match didn't last very long."

Natalie Williams led the Bruins attack with 15 kills and an amazing .619 hitting percentage as UCLA finished the match with 41 kills and a .493 team hitting percentage. The win left UCLA alone at the top of the Pac-10 with a 5-0 Pac-10 record and 12-1 overall record.

The Ducks were held to 25 kills and a .025 hitting percentage as juniors Dawnn Charroin and Julie Jeffery paced the team with seven kills each. Oregon was also outblocked seven to two for the match.

Despite the blowout Friday night, the Ducks refused to give up on the entire trip. They regrouped and outfought the Trojans for a big road win in conference play Saturday.

"It was a good road victory for us and should help put us in a position for post-season play," Gregory said.

"Molly McGrath had one of her finest matches ever for us, setting the ball very well and hitting for a high efficiency," Gregory said. "Julie Jeffery and Marcie Price also played very well for us."

Against the Trojans, the Ducks were more effective at the net and the service line than they were against UCLA, pounding out 55 kills and scoring 11 service aces. As a team, the Ducks managed only a .188 hitting percentage but were able to hold the Trojans to a .182 mark.

The Ducks will spend this week preparing for the Arizona schools. Arizona State comes to McArthur Court on Friday night while the Wildcats of Arizona visit Oregon Saturday.
