Ducks crack Top 25 with victory over BYU

Oregon's football team broke into this week's Associated Press Top 25 poll after beating Brigham Young 32-16 Saturday at Autzen Stadium.

12th to 17th after losing to Colorado. Arizona was also in the poll, checking in at No. 25, down from No. 16.

The Ducks had received only 10 votes last week after losing to Arizona, but upset the then fourth-ranked Cougars to crack the Top 25 at No. 22 this week.

This is the seventh time in the last four seasons that Coach Rich Brooks' team has been in the AP poll.

Last season Oregon was ranked 22nd after beating Iowa in the second game of the season and later 23rd after beating Arizona 16-10. Before the AP poll expanded from 20 to 25 teams last year, the Ducks were ranked in the Top 20 three times during the 1988 season and once during the 1987 campaign.

BYU dropped from the Top 10 after its loss to the Ducks, falling to No. 11 and ending three consecutive weeks of being in the Top 10.

Notre Dame retained its No. 1 ranking this week while Florida State was again second. Three Pacific-10 Conference teams besides the Ducks also were in the Top 25.

USC moved up from 18th to 15th after beating Ohio State while Washington fell from
