Smith to debate Kopetski on TV

PORTLAND (AP) — U.S. Rep. Denny Smith, the Republican incumbent, and his second-time Democratic challenger Mike Kopetski will face off on Oct. 26 in an hourlong debate televised by Oregon Public Broadcasting.

The 5th Congressional District race is expected to be one of the closest congressional contests in the county. Smith defeated Kopetski in 1988 by 707 votes out of more than 221,000 cast.

The show will be aired by OPB radio stations at 10 a.m. Oct. 27 and will be rebroadcast at 1 p.m. Oct. 28.

The two candidates have been negotiating about such an event for months.

"We got it," said Smith aide Tony Williams. He said his camp is "pushing for more" and there could be other debates, possibly before the Corvallis and Salem chambers of commerce.

"It looks good," Jay Byrne of Kopetski's office said in confirming the date. "There's always room to discuss others."
