The Takacs String Quartet opens the University Chamber Music Series Oct. 14 at Beall Hall.

Chamber music series set

By Layne Lakefish
Emerald Entertainment Editor

The University Chamber Music Series will open with a bang this year as the Takacs String Quartet bring their international fame and talent to Eugene. The Quartet will present the inaugural concert of the Chamber Music Series on Sunday, Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. in Beall Concert Hall, 961 E. 18th Ave. The Quartet's program will include Mozart's "Quartet in D Minor," Bartok's "Quartet No. 5," and Beethoven's "Quartet in A Minor." The Quartet has been in Eugene twice before. "We invited them back because they're really good," said Scott Barkhurst, Music School director of publicity. "They have played in virtually all the major concert halls and they keep getting invited back." In 1977 the Takacs took first place and the Critic's Prize at the International String Quartet Competition in Evian, France. Since then, they have taken the gold medal at the Budapest International String Quartet Competition and the Bratislava Competition. The University Chamber Music Series, which is in its 23rd season, will present seven concerts this year including the Takacs Quartet. Other ensembles scheduled are the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra Winds on Nov. 8; the Sibelius Academy Quartet on Jan. 10; the Guarneri String Quartet on Feb. 21; the Chester String Quartet on March 10; the Beaux Arts Trio on April 15; and the Angeles Quartet on May 1. Tickets for the Takacs performance are $4 and $7 for students and range from $6.50 to $14.50 for reserved seating. Tickets will be available at the door and can also be purchased by calling the Hult Center box office at 687-5000.

CHASKINAKUY
in concert

CHASKINAKUY is a word meaning "to give and receive from hand among many people." Edmond Badoux, a founding member of the group SUKAY, and FRANCY VIDAL bring this deep sense of community and sharing to this performance of traditional Andean mountain music.
