HUSKIES

getting sacked and fumbling the ball." Musgrave had no explanation for the play afterward, saying it was just a careless mistake on his part.

"I was trying to throw to Ngalu but decided I wouldn't and just didn't protect the ball," he said. "I can't be fumbling the ball, especially when we're about to score inside the 50."

After Brunell's second scoring run, the Huskies added 10 more points to go up 31-10.

Washington marched 69 yards on 11 plays to set up a 27-yard Mike Dodd field goal on a drive highlighted by Brunell's scrambling and passing.

Two passes by Brunell to Mario Bailey gained 20 yards and two other scrambles by the quarterback accounted for 25 yards.

The big play was a third-and-12 from the Oregon 33 when Brunell was flushed out of the pocket and went 17 yards to the Duck 16 and a first down.

Brunell ended the game with 247 yards of total offense, completing 11 of 22 passes for 193 yards and running for 56 yards. He was a major thorn in the Ducks' side the entire game and an offensive weapon unlike any other Oregon has seen this year.

Brunell, only a sophomore, is a quarterback whom Oregon defensive coordinator Denny Schuler would rather not face again.

"I'd love to see him transfer out of the league," Schuler said. "He's like a (Arizona's Ronald) Veal that can throw the ball."

Brooks said it was Brunell's speed that made him so hard to contain.

"Brunell's speed was a major factor in the game," he said. "Several times he hurt us just running the football. We had 'em in third and fairly long one time and he just broke contain and ran it for the first down."

Then Washington tailback Greg Lewis, the Pac-10's leading rusher, took over.

Lewis, who scored on a 54-yard busted play on off-sides call against the Oregon defense in the first quarter, started getting outside in the third and fourth quarters as the Husky line wore down the Oregon defense.

Lewis ran for a career-high 169 yards on 23 carries and set up the next two Husky touchdowns that put the game out of reach.

His 14-yard catch from Brunell on a third-and-two gave Washington a first down on the Oregon 45. Brunell then hit Orlando McKay on the next play on a fly pattern that McKay caught over Daryl Singleton for a touchdown and a 31-10 lead.

That touchdown, not the sack of Musgrave that led to the 21-10 Husky lead, was the game's big play according to Washington Coach Don James.

"When you're playing a team like Oregon with Musgrave, you certainly can't be comfortable with a 14-point lead," James said. "That catch was important."

The Ducks came back quickly on a 48-yard Musgrave bomb to Joe Reitzug that set up a nineyard touchdown run by Burwell.

Oregon was within 31-17 with 8:50 to play, but the Huskies marched 80 yards back down the field to put the game out of reach at 38-17.

Lewis rushed for 39 yards on the drive and set up Beno Bryant's 29-yard touchdown jaunt that sealed the victory.

It was the sixth consecutive game Lewis has been over 100 yards and the seventh straight over two seasons.

"Lewis is clearly the best back we've seen," Brooks said. "He did nothing to discredit that statement. He's an outstanding football player."

After gaining 64 yards in the first quarter, Lewis was held to only 10 yards in five attempts in the second quarter, but after the Ducks lost nose tackle Marcus Woods with a sprained ankle and cornerback Muhammad Oliver with a knee injury, the Duck defense couldn't keep up with the physical Husky line and the speedy Lewis.

"Their line kind of wore us down and we had some second (line) people in there in the fourth quarter and they just kind of dominated the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball in the second half," Brooks said.

Woods sprained an ankle and is doubtful for next week, but Oliver is gone for the season after suffering a torn posterior cruciate ligament in his left knee.

Duck Notes: Oregon also played much of the game without tight end Jeff Thomason who suffered an aggravation to a hip pointer injury suffered against Utah State. His status is questionable for the rest of the season.

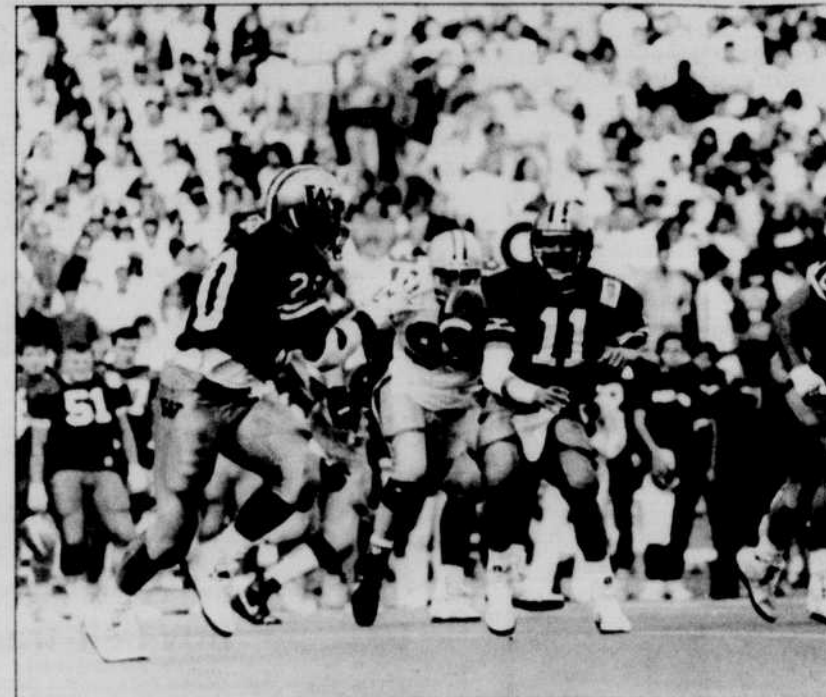

Bowl scouts from six different bowl games were on hand Saturday with scouts from the Copper, Fiesta, Freedom, Florida Citrus, Holiday and John Hancock Bowls in attendance. Saturday's attendance at Husky Stadium was 73,498, the fifth largest crowd ever at Husky Stadium.

The Ducks game with Arizona State Saturday is at 7:07 p.m., a starting time to accommodate Prime Ticket television. The game is the first of three straight home games for the Ducks.

(Top left) Michael McClellan's 24-yard reception of this Bill Musgrave pass set up Musgrave's one-yard scoring plunge to tie the game at 7-7 in the second quarter. (Above) Tight end Jeff Thomason had only one catch on the day as he reinjured a hip pointer in the second quarter. (Below) Mark Brunell (11) and Greg Lewis worked the option and almost every running play to perfection on the day as the two combined for 225 rushing yards and three scoring runs.
