

Semester At Sea

A VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY

Is your education preparing you completely for the global community in which we live? Consider seriously internationalizing your course of study by spending a semester studying and traveling around the world on the University of Pittsburgh-sponsored Semester At Sea program.

Each fall and spring, undergraduates from across the U.S. and abroad live and learn together aboard the S.S. Universe, an 18,000 ton ship equipped as a floating campus. During this 100 day voyage, you can earn 12-15 transferable credits choosing from more than 50 lower and upper division liberal arts courses. Experience an itinerary as culturally diverse as Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Malaysia, India, Turkey, the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and Morocco.

For full information and application call 800-854-0195 / 412-648-7490 in PA, or write Semester At Sea, University of Pittsburgh, 8th Floor William Pitt Union, Pittsburgh PA 15260. Apply now, then prepare for the learning adventure of your life.

Washington Semester and World Capitals Programs

Spend your semester getting "real world" experience by participating in the Washington Semester Program. Enroll in one of eight specialized programs including National Government, Foreign Policy, Justice, Journalism, Art and Architecture, Peace and Conflict Resolution, and Economics.

Or, travel to a European, Asian or South American world capital and gain valuable international experience while you immerse yourself in the culture and language of another country. Choose from programs in: Vienna, Brussels, Madrid, London, Rome, Buenos Aires, Beijing, and Poland.

In our programs you will:

- learn valuable work skills in an internship you choose
- interact with leaders and decision makers in small-group seminars

EDUCATION

We'd like to show you a path that often holds the greatest reward.

Rewarding careers for people who care.

Down the road a few years from now, you're going to be glad you chose a career path today that's right in the heart of Boston. It's Northeastern University's Boston-Bouvé College of Human Development Professions - the smart choice that leads to a greater reward for people who really care.

The graduate programs offered by Boston-Bouvé College provide you with a wide range of career opportunities in health, sport, and leisure studies, rehabilitation, counseling, communication disorders, and education.

Our faculty have received national and international recognition for their research, teaching and service to others and to their profession. Boston-Bouvé College has well-established clinical affiliations with some of Boston's leading medical, educational and research facilities.

Study may lead to a master's degree, certificate of advanced graduate study (CAGS), or doctoral degree. Most programs are offered on a part-time as well as full-time basis, combining classroom theory with practical hands-on experience. Courses meet in the late afternoon and early evening, so students can continue to work.
