

Photo by Eric Evans

Oregon received another strong all-around match from both Mindee Adams and Molly McGrath, at the net here, to easily defeat Portland State Friday.

CHARROIN

Continued from Page 11

would have to fight hard and play well because Portland State is a tough team."

McGrath, the Ducks' junior setter, had 43 assists without a single ball handling error. Once the Ducks began passing better, McGrath had her way with the Vikings.

"Molly set the middle quite well," Gregory said. "She was able to do anything she wanted to."

The Ducks got off to a sluggish start in game one but came back to win their first game in three matches after being swept by Washington State and Oregon State.

"We hadn't won a game in two matches," Gregory said, "and we looked a little nervous in the first game."

The Vikings started quickly and built a 10-7 lead in game one behind the strong play of two freshmen, Leanne Peters and Joy Lammert. Peters and Lammert each finished the first game with six kills, but it wasn't enough as the Ducks passing improved and their quick attacking offense began to click.

Ali Watkins led the Ducks from behind in game one with five kills and a key block down the stretch. It seemed only fitting that game one ended with a McGrath set and a Watkins kill, but Gregory believed the turning point of the match may have come on a defensive play earlier in the game.

"Mindee Adams ignited us in game one with a great dig," Gregory said. "We were a step slow, and she really got us going."

The Ducks improved their inconsistent passing in game two and cruised to a 15-3 victory. They finished with a .448 hitting percentage in game two and held the Vikings to a .000 mark, thanks in part to the blocking of Charroin and Adams. Julie Jeffery opened game two with back-to-back service aces and the Ducks never looked back.

Game three was a see-saw affair that saw the Vikings gain a 13-11 lead before the Ducks came from behind to close out the match on two big plays by Watkins and a kill by Charroin.

The Ducks played the second and third games without sophomore middle blocker Marcie Price. Price dislocated a finger on her right hand late in game one and never returned. Sophomore Jennifer McGinnis and freshmen Jennifer Pasqua and Nicolle Hedberg filled in for Price throughout the rest of the match.

Golfers compete in tourneys

Both Oregon golf teams were in action last week, with the men's team placing 12th in the Robertson Homes College Invitational at the Spring Creek Country Club in Ripon, Calif., while the women's team came in 10th at the Edean Ihanfeldt Invitational at the Sahalee Country Club in Renton, Wash.

Host Pacific University won the men's tournament in which three rounds were squeezed into two days on Oct. 15 and 16.

Oregon was tied for third with Pacific after the first day with a team score of 287, but the Ducks faltered over the next 36 holes, shooting a 304 and a 299 to card a 54-hole score of 890, 32 strokes off of Pacific's score.

Jim Chrisman of Oregon was one of the biggest casualties for the Ducks, firing a 68 for the first 18 holes and then ballooning to a 79 on the second 18. He came back with a 72 over the final 18 holes to finish at 219 and in a tie for 25th place.

Cam Martin and Doug DuChateau both had solid, consistent tournaments for the Ducks, firing a 220 and a 221, respectively to finish tied for 30th and 34th, respectively.

Martin stroked a 73 on both the first and second 18 holes and had a 74 for the final 18 holes while DuChateau recorded a 71 on the opening 18 and then 75s for the both the middle and final 18.

The Ducks' other two golfers, Mark Aldrich and Ted Snavely finished tied for 58th and 69th, respectively.

Aldrich recorded a 231 over 54 holes with scores of 75, 78 and 78 while Snavely finished at 236 with scores of 79, 78 and 79.

Meanwhile, the women's team finished a little better off with its 10th place showing over the three-day, 54-hole tournament from Oct. 15-17.

The Ducks finished 72 strokes off first-place Stanford's 928 total with a 1,000-stroke total for the tournament.

Turn to GOLFERS, Page 14

TELL IT TO THE PRESIDENT

Here is your chance to talk with the president about those issues that concern you most. All students are invited to an open forum with President Myles Brand. Tell him what you think. It's your future.

3:30-5:00 p.m.
Wednesday, October 24
Room 150
Columbia Hall

Moderator, Marlene Drescher, Director, Office of Student Advocacy.
Cosponsored by the Office of the President and the Associated Students of the University of Oregon.

A Wholistic Approach To Healing

Chiropractic Care 10% Student Discount

- Preventive-Oriented Care
- Individualized Treatment
- Chiropractic Manipulation
- Therapeutic Massage
- Therapeutic Stretching

Office Hours: M-W-F 8-4pm
T-Th 2-7pm

Craig Balter D.C.
342-4520

The Chiropractic Healing Center
1872 Willamette - Parking in rear

EL SALVADOR

THE SISTER UNIVERSITY PROJECT
PRESENTS A SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE

VICTOR HUGO

Will speak on his experiences in a university under siege.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23rd
@ 7:30 in the EMU Fir RM