Oregon falls to Sun Devils in four games

The Oregon volleyball team will likely be staying home come NCAA Tournament time.

The Ducks needed a sweep of the Arizona schools this week to have any hopes of making post-season play, but those hopes went out the window when Arizona State beat Oregon 9-15, 15-6, 15-9, 15-12 at Tempe.

Oregon falls to 5-8 in Pacific-10 Conference and 14-10 overall, while the Sun Devils went one-half game ahead of the Ducks in the conference standings with the win. Arizona State is now 6-8 in the Pac-10 and 15-12 overall and avenged an earlier loss to the Ducks this season.

The Ducks have now lost three in a row after dropping home matches last weekend to USC and UCLA. Oregon is now 2-6 in its last eight matches after starting the season 12-4.

Dawn Charroin paced Oregon with 12 kills and 12 digs but it wasn't enough to offset a 12-kill night for the Sun Devils' Nancy Christian, Debbie Plasted and Mindy Gowell. The three were unstoppable the entire match and carried Arizona State to the win.

Gowell also paced Arizona State with 15 digs while Plasted added 13. Ali Watkins also had 12 kills for Oregon to team with Charroin for the team lead, although both players were hobbled by ankle injuries coming into the match.

Julie Jeffrey also had nine digs for the Ducks while Mindee Adams chipped in seven kills and eight digs.

Oregon came out strong and took the opening game on the strength of a .300 hitting percentage but the Ducks fell off to only .150 for the match. The Sun Devils also hit only .150 for the match but had 18 more digs and four more service aces than Oregon did.

The Ducks return to action tonight when they travel to Tucson, Ariz. to face the Arizona Wildcats at 6 p.m. PST. The Ducks lost earlier this season to the Wildcats in Eugene as Arizona took a five-game affair at McArthur Court.

Oregon will return home and host the Washington schools next weekend.
