Unique items create mood in decorating

When college students go shopping to decorate their rooms, apartments or houses, unique, handmade and colorful items are catching their attention.

"Most students are looking for something out of the ordinary," said Shelly Ratzaff, a saleswoman at City Living, 164 W. Broadway, on the Eugene Downtown Mall. "They want something to set out that people will think is cool," Ratzaff said.

These 'unique' items may include neon phones, inflatable globes and dinosaurs, world map shower curtains and standup cut-outs of James Dean and Michael Jackson.

"Glow-in-the-dark stuff like mobiles and planets have been going really well, so have posters," Ratzaff said.

For living room furniture many students choose futon couches because of their reasonable prices, comfort and versatility. "We have sold a lot of futons this fall. They have become very popular," Ratzaff said.

What makes futons especially nice is that you can purchase beautiful covers for them. A futon sofa with the right cover can set the whole tone for a room.

If you are looking for some smaller, less expensive additions to your living space there are some interesting clocks on the market such as the moon kaleidoscope clock available at City Living or neon clocks at HK Limited Gift Store, Valley River Center.

Both HK Limited and City Living sell a wide variety of items that can brighten up any room, including great posters, cotton area rugs, neo-modern halogen lamps, throw pillows, kaleidoscopes, mobiles, etc.

Kitchen accessories are a lot more fun than they used to be. HK Limited has a large selection of dishes and glassware, plus some specialty items like oven mitts resembling fish.

And finally if you are looking for something to add 'life' to your bathroom, City Living sells a great set of bathroom accessories made by N. Funk Ceramics. Each piece is a ceramic hand and is designed for a specific purpose, like a tooth brush holder, towel ring and even a light. Although they're a bit on the expensive side, they're worth the money, in terms of creativity and intrigue.
