

Men's golf team finishes eighth

The Oregon men's golf team finished in eighth place at the San Francisco Invitational Tuesday while the women's team stands sixth after the first two rounds of the U.S. International Tournament in San Diego, Calif.

The Duck men finished the 54-hole tournament with a 932 team score, finishing 28 strokes off of first-place Stanford's total of 904.

Oregon was 11th after the first 18 holes on Monday, but moved up three notches over the final 36 holes as the final two rounds were both played Tuesday.

Doug DuChateau led the Ducks and finished in a tie for 25th in the individual standings with an 18-over par 231 with a 77 and 79 over the final 36 holes. Teammate Jeff Lyons tied for 27th with a 232, but tied for the seventh-best score over the final 18 holes with a 75.

Mark Aldrich and Jim Chrisman each finished tied for 39th with a 54-hole score of 236. Aldrich had a 77 and 79 over the final 36 holes. Chrisman, meanwhile, had a 79 and 78 on the final day.

The women's team will conclude play today in the 54-hole U.S. International Tournament with an opportunity to place at least third in the team race, if not higher.

The Ducks are sixth with a 667 after 36 holes, but trail third-place Illinois by only 12 strokes. Brigham Young holds the team lead with 639 strokes.

Individually, Leigh Hornung sits in eighth place for Oregon with a 161 after firing an 82 Tuesday after carding a 79 in the opening round.

Oregon's Amy Elieff and Lynn Yonemoto also stand in the top 25 as the two are tied with three others at 167 in 23rd place. Elieff shot an 84 Tuesday after opening with an 83. Yonemoto stroked an 81 on Tuesday to improve on her opening-round score of 86.

Rounding out the Oregon scoring are Beth Manczak and Laura Bleyhl who are both tied for 42nd with 172s. Manczak had an 88 Tuesday after shooting an 84 Monday while Bleyhl recovered from a first-round score of 90 to post an 82 over the second 18 holes.

Musgrave wins scholarship

Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave has added another award to his long list of honors both on and off the football field.

Musgrave has been awarded a $5,000 scholarship by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The award is in addition to a $10,000 fellowship the senior from Grand Junction, Colo. received last November.

Musgrave, a finance major who was the Pacific-10 Conference all-academic quarterback last season, is also being considered for several other academic awards as well as on-field honors.

He has already completed the necessary application for a Rhodes Scholarship, and is also being considered for an NCAA Top Six Award and an NCAA post-graduate scholarship award.

On the field, Musgrave is one of the five finalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, being presented for the fourth time this season, to the top senior college quarterback.

DUCKS

The overtime session belonged to the Saints. Miriam Jenkins hit two free throws with 1:30 remaining to give the Saints the lead for good at 78-77.

Shanna Daniels, a 1990 graduate of Oregon State, led all scorers on the night with 27 points for the Saints, hitting five of seven three-pointers and also grabbed 10 rebounds.

"I think we played a very good team and a very experienced team," said Oregon

Coach Elwin Heiny. "They're not just a Mickey Mouse team."

The 6-foot-3 Sporich led Oregon with 20 points on seven of nine shooting, nine rebounds and a pair of blocked shots. Another freshman, guard Iesha Smith added 14 points off the bench while McCartney scored 12.

"We obviously had a lot of things that we didn't do well," Heiny said in reference to a .411 percentage from the floor and 21 turnovers.

"It's early in the season, but we'll get better," he said.
