most six weeks off before facing Colorado State in the Dec. 29 Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, Calif.

Oregon set the tone early when cornerback Devon Hosey intercepted Beaver quarterback Matt Booher on the game's first possession and returned it to the Beaver 45-yard line.

The Ducks were forced to settle for a 43-yard McCallum field goal, but Oregon State tied it at 3-3 when Chad Paulson's 57-yard kickoff return set up Jamie Burke's 34-yard field goal.

Oregon had several other chances to get on the scoreboard in the first half, but killed drives with penalties — the first time the Ducks were seriously hurt by penalties this season.

"We went into this game by far the least-penalized team in the league, but boy did we hurt ourselves with stupid penalties," Brooks said. "At one point in the first half I thought we kind of lost our poise a little bit as a football team."

But the big key for Oregon was that quarterback Bob Brothers, forced to start for Musgrave, didn't lose his poise.

Brothers only completed eight of 22 passes for 76 yards and did throw two interceptions, but neither one hurt the Ducks because of the defense.

Brothers' second interception, picked off by Todd Sahlfeld at the Oregon 28, gave the Beavers a chance to tie the game, but Burke, a true freshman, missed for the first time in his career as a 31-yard attempt went wide left.

After holding Oregon State to 51 rushing yards in the first half, the Duck defense held the Beavers to minus-24 yards in the second half.

"We played more conservatively with more zone because we didn't want to give up the big play," Schuler said. "That three-point lead started looking better all the time."

Oregon did give up one big play — a 35-yard pass from Booher to Maurice Wilson to the Ducks' 29 early in the fourth quarter — but two plays later outside linebacker Peter Brantley forced a fumble from fullback James Jones and inside linebacker Joe Farwell recovered on the 34.

The Beavers had three more possessions after that, but sacks by Woods and Andy Conner, and a near interception by Farwell, ended any Beaver hopes of a win.
