with a team-high 24 and 10 boards.

His performance didn't surprise Monson or the Ducks.

"Smith did the kind of things that we expected of him," Monson said. "In the first half, he pretty much had his way. If we were going to play them again, I'd probably throw a box around him."

Richard Lucas and Bob Fife combined to shut down Smith in the second half, but the Ducks weren't able to put the ball in the hoop on a consistent basis — a problem that has plagued them in the early going this year.

"Offensively we were out of sync again," Monson said. "Once we get our offensive game together with our defensive game, we are going to win."

Fife, who returned to the starting lineup after a one-game hiatus, was solid throughout, finishing with six points, seven boards, four steals and five blocks, all coming in the game's first 15 minutes.

"I was pleased the way Fife played," Monson said. "I thought he was aggressive, active and got his hands on a lot of balls."

Oregon heads home to face Alabama-Birmingham on Tuesday, followed by road tilts at Utah and the University of Portland on Thursday and Saturday, respectively.

Wallenborn, and another Sporcich point from the foul line gave the Ducks a permanent lead, 62-57, and the win.

Oregon finally got a victory outside of Eugene, but the Ducks did not win prettily.

Coach Elwin Heiny noted that in the Ducks' previous two contests, his team had had problems blocking out the other team from gaining offensive rebounds. Oregon again showed this weakness Friday night as they allowed the Wildcats 19 offensive boards.

Other problems included a weak 23 of 37 effort from the foul line and 31 turnovers.

"We're struggling right now and have a lot of work to do," Heiny said.
