tively. The Ducks lead 7-0 in the second quarter when Burwell scampers 75 yards for a touchdown, and then, cornerback Devon Hosey returns an interception 76 yards for a touchdown as Oregon leads 21-0 at intermission.

OREGON 28 UCLA 24: Oregon attempts to go for a 7-0 record for the first time ever at Autzen, but it isn't easy.

UCLA takes a 17-7 halftime lead, and when Tommy Maddox hits Scott Miller with a 62-yard scoring pass, the Ducks trail 24-13 with 9:32 remaining.

The Ducks quickly rally as Musgrave leads a seven-play, 72-yard drive that is capped by a two-yard scoring run by Juan Shedrick. Kelemeni's two-point conversion brings Oregon within 24-21.

The Duck defense holds, and Oregon scores again as Musgrave hits back-up tight end Vince Ferry with a 16-yard touchdown pass with 2:01 left. Ferry entered the game when Thomason was lost for the season with a fractured ankle.

"It's kind of nice to know that Bill Musgrave's last pass in the stadium was a touchdown and it won the game," Brooks said.

OREGON 3 CALIFORNIA 28: Having already accepted an unofficial invitation to play in the Freedom Bowl, the Ducks fall flat on their face in Berkeley.

The Golden Bears jump out to a 21-3 lead in the first quarter as they score on their first three possessions. Cal does all of its damage quickly as all three drives takes less than 2½ minutes off the clock.

The damage continues in the second quarter as Musgrave is forced from the game after taking a late hit on an already bruised shoulder.

While the Oregon defense holds the Golden Bears in check the rest of the way, the offense can't put together a scoring march without Musgrave.

OREGON 6 OREGON STATE 3: The annual Civil War game is a battle of defenses in the cold and rain in Corvallis.

The decimated Oregon offense goes from bad to worse. Musgrave doesn't play because of his bad shoulder and then Burwell (bruised back) and wide receiver Joe Reitzug (re-injured knee) are knocked from the game.

After the teams trade field goals in the first quarter, Bob Brothers leads the Ducks into field goal range on the first possession of the second half as Gregg McCallum boots his second field goal of the game.

The Beavers have two chances to tie or go ahead, but Jamie Burke misses a field goal in the third quarter and the Ducks force an Oregon State fumble deep inside Oregon territory.
