Laptop computer stolen at library

The following campus-area crimes were reported to the Office of Public Safety or the Eugene Police Department between Dec. 3 and Jan. 8:

- On Dec. 3 a vacuum cleaner worth $385 was reported missing from the third floor laundry room of Carson Hall. OPS has no suspects.
- Hunting equipment and other property valued at $1,022 was reported stolen Dec. 3 from a pickup truck parked in the Bean Complex parking lot. A hunting bow, arrows, boots and a camera were taken after access to truck's interior was gained through a wing window. OPS has no suspects.

Police Beat

- A wallet and contents valued at $72.50 was reported stolen from the EMU on Dec. 4. OPS has no suspects.
- The theft of a chair from a lounge in Caswell Hall was reported to EPD on Dec. 5. The chair was valued at $290.
- A power saw valued at $150 was reported stolen from a University's employee's car parked in the Physical Plant parking lot on Dec. 6. EPD has no suspects.
- A $500 Yamaha guitar and a carrying case were reported stolen from a dorm room in Robbins Hall on Dec. 6. The guitar's owner said the room was locked. OPS has no suspects.
- OPS officers arrested a University housing resident for criminal trespassing on Dec. 8. Jason Andrew Marshall of Willcox Hall, was taken into custody in Clark Hall about 1 a.m. for harassing residents and for disorderly behavior. Earlier that night, OPS officers responding to a complaint told Marshall to leave Clark Hall and not return. Marshall came back and was arrested after he gave a false name to an officer.

• An attempted burglary was reported at Delta Gamma sorority house, 1584 Alder, on Dec. 8. A resident of the house awoke about 4 a.m. and observed a white male standing near a fire escape outside a window in the sleeping porch. When verbally confronted, the suspect put his hand through a hole in the window screen and then fled on foot.

The suspect is described as about 24 years old, 6 feet 2 inches tall with a thin build and brown hair. He was last seen wearing a navy parka and jeans.

• The University Bookstore reported two charger/adaptors valued at $150 each were stolen from a floor display on Dec. 11. EPD has no suspects.

• An incident of public indecency was reported to EPD on Dec. 11. A woman observed a man masturbating in a stairwell in Condon Hall. The suspect is described as a white male wearing jeans.

• A laptop computer, printer and scanner valued at $2,200 was reported stolen from the Knight Library on Dec. 13. The victim left the equipment in a carrying case near a card catalog and returned 25 minutes later to find it missing. EPD has no suspects.

• A transient was arrested for trespassing and assaulting an OPS student patrol officer near 15th Avenue and Agate Street on Dec 17. Robert Carlyon Miller, 28, was taken into custody by EPD after he hit an OPS officer who had advised Miller to leave the Bean Complex area. Miller, who had been sleeping near a trash bin, became verbally abusive and then physically violent when questioned. The officer suffered minor injuries to the face.

• A $354 word processor was reported stolen from the University Inn on Dec. 18. The victim said the word processor was stored under a bed in a locked room. EPD has no suspects.

• A transient was taken into custody near the law school on Dec. 20. EPD arrested Joseph Michael Srain, 41, for trespassing. OPS officers had advised him of trespassing laws earlier that night. OPS had given Srain a letter in May stating he was no longer allowed on campus.

• Parts were reported stolen from a motorcycle parked near the covered tennis courts on Jan. 3. Reported missing were shock absorber caps and a ferring, valued in total at $500. OPS has no suspects.

• A tool box, tools, tire chains, ski boots and poles were reported stolen to OPS from a car parked in the Bean Complex parking lot on Jan. 3. The items, valued at $175, were stolen after the trunk of the Volkswagen Jetta was pried open.

• A computer scanner worth $130 was reported stolen from Esslinger Hall on Jan. 2. OPS has no suspects.

• A Sony camcorder valued at $3,000 was reported stolen from Pacific Hall on Jan. 4. The camcorder was stored with other electronic equipment in a locked classroom and was taken sometime between Jan. 2 and Jan. 4. EPD has no suspects.

• OPS officers were called to investigate a domestic dispute in Carson Hall on Jan. 6. The dispute involved a boyfriend and girlfriend; an informational report was filed.

• A custodian found a stolen wallet and credit cards in a men's restroom at the law school on Jan. 7. Cash had been taken from the wallet, which was returned to its owner.

• Also, seven bikes were reported stolen to OPS; none was recovered.
