

HAVE A HAND IN THE FUTURE OF YOUR BOOKSTORE

VOTE YOUR CHOICE FOR THE UO BOOKSTORE 1991 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Monday, May 13 And Tuesday, May 14

At The
UO Bookstore and the EMU Building

◆ STATEMENTS ◆ BY ◆ THE ◆ CANDIDATES ◆

FRESHMAN POSITION: ONE 2-YR POSITION OPEN

DIANA SATHER

The University of Oregon Bookstore is where most of the students buy course books and supplies. As a member of the student body I realize the immense amount of money that one must spend on books. If I am elected to the board of directors position, I will do my best to insure that the price of books and other materials stay within the range of a college student's budget. I hope you will consider me, Diana Sather, for this important position. It is one in which I am interested and capable of doing.

BRIAN THOMPSON

The function of the bookstore board of directors is to provide student insight into the operations of the over ten million dollar a year business. As a member of the board, I would provide quality representation in matters concerning such things as the guaranteed book programs, the student book discount, and a store-wide recycling program. One program which I would like to see designed and implemented by the board is a scholarship program. My interests lie in these types of programs which directly benefit the students. On of the most frustrating experiences is selling back your used books for a fourth of what you paid for them. As a member of the board I will explore ways to increase the buy-back value of your books. I would also like to close the communication gap between the bookstore and its members, who include all students and faculty here at the U of O.

GRADUATE POSITION: ONE 1-YR AND ONE 2-YR POSITION OPEN

AARON BAKER

(FOR ONE YEAR POSITION) I am a second year law student running for the one year graduate position on the Board. My qualifications for the position include the following:

- B.S. Marketing, University of Oregon College of Business Administration;
- One year management trainee work experience in a banking institution;
- Member, Board of Directors for Pacific Cascade Chapter of Bank Administration Institute (1988-89).
- Read "Calvin and Hobbes" almost every day.

I am interested in the position because it will allow me to utilize these skills productively. With my business background and board experience, I can contribute to the Bookstore's efficiency and its responsiveness to student and faculty concerns. One of my goals will be to implement a system whereby these concerns could be reviewed by the board, and decisions disseminated to the University population. I will also advocate the continuation of student specials and discounts, along with an emphasis on expanding the Bookstore's attention to current issues, including environmental concerns.

Thank you for your support.

SELENA KEEHNEL

(FOR ONE YEAR POSITION) I welcome the opportunity to serve the students here at the University of Oregon as their representative to the policy making body of the Bookstore. As a graduate student majoring in Business, I feel I can make a positive contribution to the board's operations and decisions. The position would give me the chance to apply the concepts I'm learning while gaining valuable experience in business management. This is also a chance for me to become more involved in serving the community, a role I enjoy and have been an active participant in both as an undergraduate and as a graduate student. I am an open minded person willing to listen to new ideas and would like to hear suggestions and opinions from you regarding changes you would like to see implemented in the Bookstore.

The effects of Ballot Measure 5 are sure to be felt by all of us here in the coming year. My goal is to see that the board's decisions take this into consideration and are responsive to the current needs of the students. I would like to see a serious effort made to provide an affordable level of service while continuing to make improvements to more fully meet your needs.

BILL ADAMS

(FOR TWO-YEAR POSITION) My name is Bill Adams and like every other student, faculty member and classified staff members staff member at the U of O, I am a member of the University Bookstore. One advantage of being a member is the opportunity to select the Bookstore's Board of Directors who will serve in your interest. As a first year law student with a wide variety of management experience, I believe I can effectively represent the interests and respond to the needs of the University community.

In serving the University community, the Bookstore's first priority should be to SELL ALL BOOKS, BOTH NEW AND USED, TEXT AND GENERAL PURPOSE, AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE. The 9% member discount should be maintained. Buy-back rates for used books should be competitive with any bookstore in town. Hours of operation, product lines and services should continue to reflect student requirements and schedules. I urge you to consider what you want the Bookstore to be.

Communication is the key to the continued success of OUR bookstore, so make your choice heard and VOTE!

NOMINATED; NO STATEMENT SUBMITTED:

- FOR FACULTY TWO-YEAR POSITION: Stu Thomas
- FOR SOPHOMORE TWO-YEAR POSITION: Jeff Gamble, John Goodman, Chris Greyerbiehl, Raymond Lee

SOPHOMORE POSITION: TWO 2-YR POSITIONS OPEN

DIANE ANDREWS

Every term we all go through the same routine. Part of this routine involves being a customer in the Bookstore. What you may not realize, is no matter how often you use the Bookstore by attending or working at U of O, you are a member. By being a member you have a great deal of influence on the Bookstore in its operations.

I'm Diane Andrews. I am running for this position because I would like to work directly with you by communicating your ideas and concerns. As this year comes to an end, we are seeing many changes within our university. As a board member, I am very determined to represent your needs in any changes of pricing and inventory selection.

In my past, I have alot of leadership experience. I am a very highly organized, motivated and dedicated person. I am confident in my ability to represent you. I can see the Bookstore has many benefits that it can offer us. If I were elected I would like to work with you to bring you these benefits.

So remember VOTE DIANE ANDREWS and we can make the difference.

DYLAN COULTER

The bottom line is that the UO Bookstore is used by students and is run by students. I will continue student control and improve student empowerment. This is how:

- Ballot Measure 5 will affect the Bookstore. Currently, I serve with the ASUO Executive, as the Elections Coordinator, and have become familiar with the issues that surround Measure 5. I will carry this knowledge over to the board and make sure students are not paying tremendously more because of the enrollment cuts.
- The Board must take a more pro-active stance. The Board is composed of eleven individuals, eight of which are students! This presents a tremendous opportunity for students to help students. We must insure that students, not paid non-student management, are making the decisions.
- The Board must become more visible. Dialogue, forums, and a direct line of communication between students and the Board must be established. This is a necessity for addressing issues such as the selling of Playboy and Penthouse at the Bookstore.

The bottom line is that I will make sure students do indeed exert control and that course books and materials remain as affordable as possible.

KEVIN GOVRO

As everyone is aware by now, ballot measure 5 is affecting and will continue to affect the University at all levels. The Bookstore is not immune to this dilemma. The upcoming decline in enrollment will result in lost revenues for the Bookstore and this will present the Bookstore Board with a difficult problem to solve. The problem will be how to compensate for the losses without having to cut any of the existing services for the students.

If, in fact, cutbacks have to be made I will work hard to preserve the discount received by students at its present level. A reduction in the student discount would result in course books and other items to become considerably more expensive. We, as students are already going to be hurt by increased tuition and should not have to deal with higher book prices as well. If elected, I will bring to this position responsible decision making and the assurance that the best interests of all students will be served. I urge all students to vote in this election because the upcoming decisions faced by the Bookstore Board will affect all students to a significant degree.

ALLISON HEBER

Experience, Commitment, Responsibility and Action. Having served on the Bookstore Board of Directors for the 1989-1991 term, I have demonstrated these four characteristics. I am uniquely qualified for this position because I have a voting record that speaks for my support of the membership's BEST interests. Currently, I hold the position of President. Occupying this office has taught me extensively about the inner working of our store and the important role the Board plays in the store's success. The year ahead holds some significant challenges. With predicted enrollment decreases and an uncertain economic environment, we need to assure that Board Members fully understand the issues they face. This understanding can come only with experience. I have that experience. Accessibility to member's concerns and a pro-active approach have been trademarks of my term. Assure that the Bookstore will listen to your voice and provide you with superior customer service and quality merchandise at a fair price with an environmental consciousness. Put your vote with an individual who is Committed to you. Responsible to you and, above all, Accessible to you. Re-elect me, Allison Heber, for 1991-93 Bookstore Board of Directors.

LAVON MURPHY

QUALIFIED

- Employed in a member supported, non-profit, state wide service organization dedicated to the needs of its membership.
- Skilled in communication between members, directors and staff of non-profit organizations.
- Former high-school student body officer and involved in multiple leadership positions.

INTERESTED IN YOUR NEEDS

- My number one priority is to serve the diversified needs of the Bookstore membership.
- I will pursue more student/faculty/administration feedback regarding evaluation of current policy and programs offered by the Bookstore, and suggestions for potential policy.
- I will seek feedback from Bookstore staff on ways to better serve you.
- I will use my communication skills to represent your opinions.

SOLID CONTRIBUTOR

- I am committed to the continuance of a service oriented Bookstore as a vital support to the University community.
- I am committed to a Bookstore that supports recycling and other important environmental issues.
- I am committed to enhancing communications between members, directors and staff of the Bookstore.

MARK SALVO

With a recession on the horizon and an increase in tuition set for next year, the college student's dollar is sure to be listed as an endangered species. It would be unfortunate if next year's students, after paying their tuition, housing and food bills, were left unable to purchase their books and school supplies.

As a candidate for the Board of Directors of the UO Bookstore, it is my goal to establish as many money-saving policies for the students and staff as would be financially possible. I am especially interested in improving returns to students who sell back their books. I promise you that I am a very persistent and capable candidate dedicated to these goals.

My name is Mark Salvo. I am a pre-law student, and a member of the Honors College and the UO Marching Band. What I offer you is a representative who will always be watching out for the future of his fellow students.

RYAN WIESE

To coin a few, well used phrases from this years ASUO elections: Diversity, Experience, Student empowerment. What do these things mean? In being on this years ASUO Elections Board, I had a lot of exposure to what issues concern students. The position of bookstore board has to be addressed from the standpoint of any other elected position as a representative voice of the constituents. I am a member of several organizations and groups on campus, as such I am exposed to variety of opinions and ideals. As a business major, I am qualified in the financial duties of the position. As a sociology major I have an understanding of the group interactions that influence not only the Bookstore Board, but the university at large.

My experience and diversity give me the capabilities to deal with various contingencies as they arise. Whether that includes the financial setbacks of measure #5 or the modernization of the bookstore I can be depended upon to make righteous, fair decisions that are representative of you, based on your voice. On May 13th and 14th Lets do some good. Vote Wiese!
