

Are you really ready to leave the UO?

College is a time to learn and grow, a time to find out where you are and where you are going. It is also a time to cut loose and have a great time. Take the following quiz to evaluate your experience here at the University. Answer yes or no to each question, (some have bonus points in parenthesis) and see how you rank.

Here is how to score yourself: for each "yes," give yourself one point. A "yes" answer to anything in parenthesis scores you an extra point. "No" answers are worth zero.

25 and above — Well, you not only made it through college, but you had a good time doing it. You effectively sampled the sights, events, personalities and culture of Eugene and are probably altered for life. Congratulations on successfully completing college and good luck in the future. (If you carry on like this, you may need it.)

15 to 24 — You played it reasonably safe, but took time to enjoy a good portion of college life. When you get out there in the real world, always keep in mind the good side of life. Congratulations on making it through as a duck, and don't worry, wherever you go you will take a piece of Eugene with you. (Depending on what piece, it may plague you for the rest of your life.)

Below 15 — You are graduating safe and sound, but are you sure you went to the University of Oregon? You've been way too involved in something (classes, relationship) to really experience college life. If you score below 10, we suggest you consider graduate school. It's important to take more than a diploma away from such a liberal-diverse-aware-cultured campus.
