

NIGHTLIFE

Club 136, formerly Club Hollywood, 136 E. 11th Ave., is one of the newer dance places, offering live music, a DJ and one of the best light shows in Eugene.

The decor is black and white. The walls are black and the dance floor is black and white. There are plenty of black tables and white chairs, or you can sit at the bar. Club 136 specials include a 75-cent pizza special during Happy Hour (5-7 daily) and a nickel beer hour on occasion.

Club 136 features local talent, most recently the Boogie

Patrol Express, a new band with a lot of energy that is definitely worth seeing.

Club 136 also attracts a mixed crowd that's always unpredictable. There is a great sound system that makes for good dancing. Three TVs are located on the walls, with the sound off. On the 6th of September, they hosted the Pacific Northwest Coors Mr. and Miss Silver Bullet Competition.

The new Taylor's College Side Inn, 894 E. 13th, is the closest watering hole to campus. Originally a blues bar with a long tradition in Eugene — including rumors that John Belushi got the idea for the Blues Brothers act when he frequented Taylor's during the filming of Animal House — it is now more collegiate.

Taylor's features live music every evening, with Mark Alan on Wednesdays. On Sunday, it's open mike night with sign ups at 8.

Domestic beers go for $1.25/glass, $1.50/pint, and $4.25/pitcher. During Happy Hour from 4-7 p.m. daily, beer is $.75/glass, $1.00/pint, and $3.25/pitcher. Imported beers run $1.75/glass, $2.50/pint, and $7.25/pitcher.

Taylor's is open until 2 a.m. on the weekends and most
