cuisine, performances, displays and exhibits.

In addition to the dancing and feasting, athletic events will not be absent from the celebration.

There will be the traditional Run, a perennial favorite. A 1K fun run and an 8K road race will begin 9:30 a.m. on Sept. 22 at the corner of Charnelton Street and Sixth Avenue near the Hult Center. Interested participants must register with the Celebration summer office at the address below.

Bike enthusiasts will also have opportunities to compete in numerous races during the weekend. There will be two races on Sept. 21 at Lowell Park, one at 9 a.m. and another 4 p.m. The third race will start at Campbell Community Center, Sept. 22 at 11:15 a.m.

Other athletic events will include a tennis tournament, skateboarding competition, handball tournament, five-a-side soccer tournament, disc golf & foot-bag tournament and a basketball tournament.

The athletic events require registration at the Celebration summer office. For rules and regulation, contact the office at the address below.

When serious athletic events get too heavy to digest, hop over for some fun matches, which will be held at the corner of Willamette Street and Eighth Avenue on Sept. 22. At 2 p.m., the secretary-boss type-
